RE: (Student's Name, School)

Dear _____:

In order to register a student in Parkway, we require two proofs of residency. Since you had just moved into the district at the time you registered (student name) in (Name of School) , we accepted one proof of residency with the understanding that within thirty days you would provide us with another proof of residency. It is now past thirty days, and we have not received another proof of residency. One of the following documents containing your name and address must be presented to the school registrar:

- Unpaid utility bill
- Credit card statement
- Employer's record of address
- Bank statement
- Governmental acknowledgment of address
(i.e., Social Security, welfare, voter registration, etc.)

This document should be current, contain your name and address and be presented to the school registrar by (give date that is one week from date of letter) . If this information is not received by the above date,

Improvement Opportunities for the Public Schools in the District of Columbia United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Governmental Affairs. Subcommittee on Oversight of Government Management, Restructuring, and the District of Columbia, 1998 Serving Students Who Are Homeless Ronald E. Hallett, Linda Skrla, 2016-12-16 Schools and districts are seeing unprecedented numbers of students and families living without residential stability Although the McKinney Vento Act has been around for over two decades many district and site level practitioners have a difficult time interpreting and implementing the Acts mandates within their local contexts This book provides much needed guidance to help educational leaders support students who are homeless and highly mobile students who face significant barriers related to access and academic success The authors employ several different strategies to help translate complex state and federal policies into effective practices They include policy analysis examples of successful approaches tools for training staff youth experiences and address the role of school districts in serving marginalized students Serving Students Who Are Homeless can be used as a professional development tool at the local and district level and as a textbook in higher education settings that prepare entry level and advanced credential administrators counselors school psychologists and curriculum leaders
