marginalized The book looks at these tropes and the work of Caribbean media figures and examines how they are challenging and negotiating these media representations Dealing with Screammers, Liars, and Criers Charlie Scheele, 2022-11-22 The title of this book Dealing with Screammers Liars and Criers may be a bit misleading to people who do not engage in the sales and service field Dealing with screamers liars and criers has nothing to do with controlling children or managing their lives But if you do work for a business to help with problem resolution or direct sales you know exactly what I speak of This book has everything to do with overcoming your client's negative behavior while promoting goods and services or even persuade your fellow workers to your opinions and beliefs At times the distinction between naughty children and clients is hardly noticeable Unfortunately part of sales is dealing with screamers liars and criers Many people have little or no technical training in the managing a contact Rarely to you get this technical training But my lifelong search for excellence in sales and service will show the reader the path to learning and succeeding This book is not exclusive to sales professionals for there are many ways one can be a salesperson It may mean professing your opinion concerning a business decision Or even more importantly it may help you sell the most valuable product you have yourself when you interview for a job Do you know how to deal with clients under the worse of conditions This book will show you signposts to success Within you may learn many techniques and systems to do so This book is dedicated to help you excel at sales and customer service It will help you manage sales contacts and what it takes to be the best in your trade Blessed with a Burden Anthony
