A Parent's Guide to a Peaceful Home Patricia Braxton, 2013-07-02 Parents serve as their children's first teachers. What they learn at home helps them build on their learning and education at school. In A Parent's Guide to a Peaceful Home, author Patricia Braxton provides a guide to helping parents manage their home in a peaceful, loving way in order to ensure success for their children at home and at school. This handbook presents Braxton's TAD (Toward Affective Development) model, which gives practical advice to help parents teach their children responsibility, respect, discipline, and other positive character traits. It also teaches parents how to relate to each other properly and how to affect change from within. Through TAD, Braxton works to change the face of families in a positive way. The steps detailed in A Parent's Guide to a Peaceful Home can facilitate an atmosphere where love, compassion, respect, and other virtues are taught by example and reinforced to produce a lasting peaceful home.

Leading Modern Learning Jay McTighe, Greg Curtis, 2019-07-08 Redesign education to meet the needs of 21st century students. In the second edition of Leading Modern Learning, authors Jay McTighe and Greg Curtis outline a reworked version of their blueprint for major education reform. More than a simple refresh, the latest edition incorporates new insights, experiences, and tools that will help you implement modern learning practices in your department, school, or district. Use this book to guide education and curriculum reform and empower modern learners. Understand the necessity and value of education reform and updating school curriculum for the 21st century classroom. Learn how to use a blueprint for your vision of learning mission and curriculum development to establish mission clarity and effective instruction and assessment practices. Explore systems thinking and frameworks for backward design that can be utilized by school leadership to develop action plans and guide school curriculum reform for modern learning. Read an all new chapter on change management and strategic planning for district and school leadership, as well as new Notes From the Field, which highlight how to avoid potential missteps and misunderstandings that inhibit progress. Utilize the appendices and free reproducibles to further your understanding of education reform, curriculum development, and school leadership for modern learning. A joint publication of ASCD and Solution Tree.
