

The first part of the story is about a boy named Ben. Ben is a very smart boy. He is always at the top of his class. He is also a very kind boy. He always helps his friends. One day, Ben was walking home from school. He was carrying a book bag full of books. He was walking on a path that was very dark. He was walking alone. He was feeling a little scared. He was walking towards a big house. The house was very old. It had a big porch. There were many windows. The windows were all broken. Ben was walking towards the house. He was walking very slowly. He was looking at the house. He was looking at the windows. He was looking at the porch. He was looking at everything. He was looking at the house. He was looking at the windows. He was looking at the porch. He was looking at everything. He was looking at the house. He was looking at the windows. He was looking at the porch. He was looking at everything.
