House of Commons - Welsh Affairs Committee: The Impact of Changes to Housing Benefit in Wales - HC 159 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Welsh Affairs Committee, 2013-10-17 The costs of housing benefit currently makes up more than a tenth of the UK Government's expenditure on welfare with costs forecast to reach 25 billion by 2014 15 The Government's policy on under occupation came into force in April 2013 and it is estimated that 40 000 tenants in Wales will be affected representing 46% of working age housing benefit claimants living in the social rented sector This is the highest proportion of any region in Great Britain There could therefore be a shortage of one and two bedroom homes in Wales to re house everyone who wants to downsize If local authorities are struggling to find alternative smaller accommodation for Government should undertake a speedy review of this policy It is also increasingly urgent for the Welsh Government to continue with its house building programme with a particular focus on the building of smaller sized properties obviously this is a long term solution that would require additional resources If no social housing is available tenants may need to move to the private rented sector and private rental costs would need to be monitored The costs of moving disabled households who require adaptations are also a concern There may be a case for exempting disabled households from the policy The Government's proposal to pay housing benefit direct to social tenants under Universal Credit may result in some tenants being unable to manage their rent payments The Committee recommends that the Government provide for housing benefit to be paid direct to the landlords in certain circumstances for example after a specified period of non payment Intellectual Property David

Joudrey, Arlene G. Taylor, David P. Miller, 2015-09-29 A new edition of this best selling textbook reintroduces the topic of library cataloging from a fresh modern perspective Not many books merit an eleventh edition but this popular text does Newly updated Introduction to Cataloging and Classification provides an introduction to descriptive cataloging based on contemporary standards explaining the basic tenets to readers without previous experience as well as to those who merely want a better understanding of the process as it exists today The text opens with the foundations of cataloging then moves to specific details and subject matter such as Functional Requirements for Bibliographic Records FRBR Functional Requirements for Authority Data FRAD the International Cataloging Principles ICP and RDA Unlike other texts the book doesn't presume a close familiarity with the MARC bibliographic or authorities formats ALA's Anglo American Cataloging Rules 2nd Edition revised AACR2R or the International Standard Bibliographic Description ISBD Subject access to library materials is covered in sufficient depth to make the reader comfortable with the principles and practices of subject cataloging and classification In addition the book introduces MARC BIBFRAME and other approaches used to communicate and display bibliographic data Discussions of formatting presentation and administrative issues complete the book questions useful for review and study appear at the end of each chapter

Hungary International Monetary Fund. European Dept.,2019-12-05 This 2019 Article IV Consultation discusses that in an increasingly uncertain global economic environment Hungary's growth registered one of the highest rates in Europe in 2018 The economy now appears to be running above capacity and wages are growing rapidly amid historically low unemployment It is thus likely that growth will slow down over the medium term Supply side reforms can help sustain the momentum Policies have reduced vulnerabilities substantially however measures to support the targeted fiscal consolidation could be more ambitious to ensure that room for fiscal policy manoeuvre is rebuilt Wages outstripping labor productivity growth slower export growth and shortcomings in the business environment for small and medium enterprises call for invigorating structural reform efforts Improvements in competitiveness are needed to sustain rapid income convergence and address demographic challenges The government's competitiveness program contains important elements Focus should be on improving the business environment enhancing the legal and regulatory framework and increasing labor force participation

Republic of Poland International Monetary Fund. European Dept.,2019-02-06 This 2018 Article IV Consultation discussions with the Republic of Poland focused on the strong growth upswing since 2017 which has been supported by three coincident cycles a rebound in euro area activity a substantial increase in European Union transfers and new large social benefit programs It has been highlighted in the report that risks to the outlook for the Polish economy from external developments are elevated while any slippage from prudent policies and sound governance principles could dent investors risk appetite Substantial adjustment in recent years has brought the medium term objective within reach Remaining adjustment should rely on sustainable growth friendly measures The team recommended that independent and well resourced financial supervision is essential for effective and even handed oversight particularly in a state dominated financial system Sustaining rapid income convergence as working age population declines calls for durable increases in investment and productivity Reforms should focus on removing existing barriers to investment facilitating more reliable access to skilled labor enhancing predictability of policy changes and providing a level playing field for all investors by protecting the rights of minority shareholders and ensuring competition
