

School Captain Speech

Good Afternoon, teachers and year 8 students of Marymount College. My name is Sara Petruzzella, I'm a student of 8 Amber and I would love to be your school captain for 2011. Through-out this speech you will learn a little bit more about my personality, my goals and aspirations, my leadership qualities and what would make me a good candidate for this position.

Firstly, I would like to start by explaining to you what this position means to me. The School Captain needs to be a respectful but also fun loving person, someone who can represent the school and its core values; Hospitality, Compassion, Stewardship and Reconciliation in a positive manner. To me the role of school captain is more than a badge or a fancy title but a chance to make a positive influence on the students even teachers and their time at Marymount College. I will be the first person to say that I'm not perfect but I do believe that this position is perfect for me.

Secondly, I would like to introduce you to my personality types. My 2 strongest personality types are Type 1: The Reformer and Type 2: the Helper. As these personality types I offer many great qualities to this position,

As a Type One I,

- Have a strong sense of what's right, which leads me to make good decisions.
- Always work towards an ideal, I always have a goal and believe that I can achieve it.
 - Am truthful and trustworthy, I can be trusted with great responsibility.
- Have strong values and morals, I stand for what I believe in and I don't let others influence me in a wrong way.
 - Always try to be the best person I can possibly be.

As a Type Two I,

- Put others before myself, I think about others and how my actions may influence them.
- Am very friendly, I am a very happy and bubbly person who gets along well with others.
- Am dedicated, in total this year I was involved in around 10 groups including, T.O.M, Enviro group council, Peer mentor and Vocal Ensemble, I've been a class captain and a house captain also.

School Captain Speech:

The Bonds of Brotherhood Bob Mitchell, 2023-08-15 The Bonds of Brotherhood begins with an act of vandalism at a prestigious English private school. A statue in honor of the school's founder is defaced, sparking the curiosity of a group of perceptive ninth graders. Was this a routine property crime or a political statement gone wrong? This is a fresh take on the classic boarding school novel. Stimulating critical thinking for teenagers in an age of cancel culture, the tale is told with gentleness and plenty of humor. The British boarding school setting is the perfect environment to critique elitism and pomposity and to revisit some of the darker shadows of history. Underneath this story is the biblical notion of our shared value and humanity. Important motifs about inequality, slavery, exclusion, and bullying pervade the text. Strong Christian voices come from the main protagonist Edwin Fothergill, and the school's chaplain; goodness, generosity, and kindness prevail.

Discipline and Learn Megan Watkins, 2012-03-24 Discipline and Learn: Bodies, Pedagogy, and Writing explores how discipline is typically construed as a form of subjection in contemporary educational thought and in critical and cultural theory more broadly. It provides a critique of this emphasis on the repressive aspects of discipline, highlighting its enabling potential and role in the development of dispositions to learning. The book engages with the work of a range of theorists: Foucault, Bourdieu, Merleau-Ponty, Mauss, and Spinoza, and considers their usefulness in theorizing embodiment and learning in the teaching of writing in the early years of school. Emphasis, however, is placed on the work of Bourdieu and his notion of habitus, melding theory and practice in an ethnography of contemporary classrooms. This text is invaluable reading for students and academics across the social sciences and humanities interested in questions of embodiment, affect, and their relation to learning. This is the most thought-provoking book to be published on pedagogy in a long long time. Conceptually elegant and empirically rich, it undercuts conventional wisdom and potentially rearranges how we think about teaching, learning, and writing. It argues that students' bodies, not just their minds, matter in learning, explaining how, in practice, the desire to learn is a mindful bodily disposition. And it shows how, through an enabling form of discipline, teachers can produce a scholarly habitus in all students, including the educationally disadvantaged and defiant. Jane Kenway, Professor of Education, Monash University. Discipline and Learn: Bodies, Pedagogy, and Writing is an excellent book which makes an important contribution to our understanding of both pedagogy and the body, and which is sure to spark debate in both fields. It is careful and judicious in its approach but still manages to be provocative and original. Nick Crossley, Professor of Sociology, University of Manchester.

Behind the Smile Anja Christoffersen, 2018-08-30 Anja Christoffersen learned early on that you can never judge a book by its cover. Born with a congenital disability that deformed her digestive, skeletal, reproductive, circulatory, urinary, and respiratory systems, she had her first surgery at five hours old. Despite a grim diagnosis from the outside, you would be unable to tell she was any different. You would never have known that at birth the medical fraternity warned that she would never live a normal life. Once Anja grew to an age where she could understand her medical differences, she made the decision that she did not want an ordinary life anyway she wanted an extraordinary one As soon as Anja realised happiness is a choice she made the decision she would be happy despite her circumstances From surgical theatres to chasing her dreams led her to a career as an international fashion model Join Anja as she walks the catwalks of Australia and Europe with her hidden medical condition overcomes challenges and discovers how to keep smiling no matter what The Happiest Refugee Anh Do,2011-03-22 The bestselling laugh out loud reach for your hanky story of one of Australia s best loved comedians

Making of Martha Mayfield Jo Dabrowski,2025-08-26 Martha Mayfield has always been the quiet kid Martha is after all her mother s daughter The shy child of an even shy mum And she likes it this way That is until Martha s mum loses her job And Martha s teacher overlooks her at school And soon Martha realises something has to give Can she really go through life being so quiet that nobody takes her seriously Should she really keep all her good ideas to herself forever Putting yourself out there is every quiet kid s worst nightmare but Martha is determined to make the most of it And perhaps to make something of herself along the way The Making of Martha Mayfield is an endearing yet funny story about coming out of your shell finding out what you re capable of and showing the world who you really are

Harold Holt Ross Walker,2022-08-30 A revelatory biography of Harold Holt the prime minister who helped create modern Australia Harold Holt was a pivotal prime minister in Australian history Ambitious modern and telegenic he helped bring his party and nation into the late twentieth century following the Menzies years Nowhere was Holt's legacy more significant than in the 1967 referendum and in helping to end the White Australia policy At the same time as the Vietnam War raged Holt dramatically increased Australian troops telling President Lyndon B Johnson in 1966 that Australia was all the way with LBJ In this evocative intimate and deeply researched biography Ross Walker captures the worlds in which Holt moved and the people who were close to him He reveals a popular gentle yet at times self destructive man whose tendency to always go one step further would have fatal consequences This is a strikingly original portrait of Australia's seventeenth prime minister A beautifully told story of a fascinating Australian life and a tragic prime ministership not only in its bizarre end but in the entanglement of an amiable easygoing man in poisonous political rivalry and a brutal and contentious war in Vietnam Frank Bongiorno The Autobiography of Joseph A. Bagnall Joseph A. Bagnall,2009-04-13 A compelling account of a career in education Dr Bagnall has served as an elementary school teacher a public and private high school teacher a professor in community colleges and an administrator in a college continuing education division His many challenges contrast sharply with the problems of today's educators but his story offers insights and inspiration to those who care about schools and those who teach in them
