made it inevitable are being forced into public schools across America After my sister Meadow was murdered at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School the media obsessed for months about the type of rifle the killer used It was all clickbait and politics not answers or justice That wasn't good enough for us My dad is a real tough guy but Meadow had him wrapped around her little finger He would do anything she wanted and she would want him to find every answer so that this never happens again My dad teamed up with one of America's leading education experts to launch his own investigation We found the answers to the questions the media refused to ask Questions about school safety that go far beyond the national gun debate And the answers to those questions matter for parents teachers and schoolchildren nationwide If one single adult in the Broward County school district had made one responsible decision about the Parkland shooter then my sister would still be alive But every bad decision they made makes total sense once you understand the district's politically correct policies which started here in Broward and have spread to thousands of schools across America Hunter Pollack Foreword

The Making of Nova Southeastern University Julian M. Pleasants, 2013-10-29 Nova Southeastern University is a flourishing university with a fascinating past Arising from the shared dream of local community businessmen in Broward County Florida the university was chartered in 1964 At the time it had no buildings to its name just an empty plot of land and a dedicated group of visionary advocates On the fiftieth anniversary of NSU s founding this book tells the amazing story of what is now one of the largest not for profit universities in the United States Today Nova Southeastern University serves more than 27 000 students and has produced more than 150 000 alumni Its main campus in Fort Lauderdale is beautifully landscaped with modern classroom buildings an array of student housing options state of the art athletic facilities and a unique joint use library the largest library building in the state of Florida Through distance learning and travel study programs NSU s presence extends throughout the United States and around the world Using interviews with present and past NSU presidents faculty administrators staff students and even NSU s original founders award winning historian Dr

Julian Pleasants provides an insider's view of the story behind the school. He re-creates the scene of a meeting one night in the 1960s when local businessman Jack Hines pounded on a dining room table and said, "We've just got to have a university." Against all odds, they succeeded. Dr. Pleasants describes the arrival of NSU's very first graduate students, reveals the internal conflicts that challenged the school's program development, and related the frightening brush with bankruptcy that threatened to close the doors of the young university forever. The personal testimonies are backed by a wealth of primary sources including board of trustees minutes, unpublished manuscripts, administrative documents, and presidential papers from the NSU archives. Rare photographs offer a glimpse into the early history, culture, and architecture of the university. The Making of Nova Southeastern University shows how this unique school overcame tremendous odds in just five decades to become an innovative leader in higher education and ushers in NSU's next fifty years of growth and creativity.

United States of America Congressional Record, Proceedings and Debates of the 113th Congress Second Session Volume 160 - Part 5, Donna of the Dead Alison Kemper, 2014-03-04. Donna Pierce might hear voices, but that doesn't mean she's crazy. Probably. The voices do serve their purpose though; whenever Donna hears them, she knows she's in danger. So when they start yelling at the top of their proverbial lungs, it's no surprise she and her best friend Deke end up narrowly escaping a zombie horde. Alone, without their families, they take refuge at their high school with the super helpful nerds, the bossy head cheerleader, and best of all, Liam, hottie extraordinaire and Donna's long-time crush. When Liam is around, it's easy to forget about the moaning zombies, her dad's plight to reach them, and how weird Deke is suddenly acting toward her. But as the teens' numbers dwindle and their escape plans fall apart, Donna has to listen to the secrets those voices in her head have been hiding. It seems not all the zombies are shuffling idiots, and the half-dead aren't really down with kids like Donna.
