

School Board President Bill Dwyer's
Huntington High School Graduation Speech - 2009

Thank you for the introductions, Andrew.

On behalf of the Board of Education I'd like to welcome everyone to this year's commencement ceremony. I extend this welcome to members of our central administration, to our high school administrators and faculty, and most importantly, to our graduating students, your family and friends.

Graduates, let me share with you my perspective on the wonderful event that high school graduation is. You see, being that I'm, um, not as young as you, I've been through several of my own commencement ceremonies and since have had time to properly understand where they fit amongst all the other things that go on in life.

You see, life is a journey, but along the way, we stop to celebrate milestones, and high school graduation is a big one, not only for you, but for your parents as well. You've all worked hard to get to this point and it really is worth celebrating.

It is a good time to look back on all you've accomplished and all the good times you've had along the way, while understanding that your future is full of opportunity waiting for you to grab hold of it and say, "Hey, let's go do something good." So you're celebrating both an ending and a beginning.

The ending, of course, is of your education in our District's schools. You've been taught reading, writing and arithmetic, history, science and foreign languages. You have had the benefit of dedicated and experienced teachers willing to challenge
