IMPROVING SCHOOLS FOR AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDENTS Sheryl J. Denbo, Lynson Moore Beaulieu, 2002-01-01 Improving Schools for African American Students is designed to provide educational leaders with a better understanding of how to recognize the diversity of strengths that Black students bring with them to school and how to use these strengths to improve achievement The articles contained in this book discuss generic education issues such as policy reform the importance of high quality teaching and the improvement of schools from the perspective of the academic achievement of African American students Part I explores institutional racism in the context of America s public schools and provides suggestions for educational leaders to eliminate harmful policies and practices within educational institutions and settings Part II discusses the kinds of institutional and instructional changes that are needed to support successful schooling of African American children and youth Part III focuses on the challenges presented to African American students by the current high stakes testing environment that surrounds standards assessment and accountability A review of the literature on schools that have succeeded in improving achievement for African American students at the elementary middle and high school levels with districts moving towards narrowing the achievement gap is included This text examines a wide variety of policies programs practices and research that will provide valuable insight The emphasis throughout the book is on the ability of educators to successfully restructure their schools offer high quality teaching and learning standards for African American students and to make the kinds of changes that will result in high achievement for all students Good Reception Antero Garcia,2017-11-10 A year in the life of a ninth grade English class shows how participatory culture and mobile devices can transform learning in schools Schools and school districts have one approach to innovation buy more technology In Good Reception Antero Garcia describes what happens when educators build on the ways students already use technology outside of school to help them learn in the classroom As a teacher in a public high school in South Central Los Angeles Garcia watched his students nearly universal adoption of mobile devices Whether recent immigrants from Central America or teens who had spent their entire lives in Los Angeles the majority of his students relied on mobile devices to connect with family and friends and to keep up with complex social networks Garcia determined to discover how these devices and student predilection for gameplay combined with an evolving culture of participation could be used in the classroom Garcia charts a year in the life of his ninth grade English class first surveying mobile media use on campus and then documenting a year long experiment in creating a wireless critical pedagogy by incorporating mobile media and games in classroom work He describes the design and implementation of Ask Anansi an alternate reality game that allows students to conduct inquiry based research around questions that interest them including Why is the food at South Central High School so bad Garcia cautions that the transformative effect on education depends not on the glorification of devices but on teacher support and a trusting teacher student relationship El Tigre News ,2003 Library Services to Youth of Hispanic Heritage Barbara Immroth,Kathleen de la Peña McCook,2000-05-15 As the United States becomes ever more comfortable with recognizing the cultural diversity of the many groups that make up its population library services must seek to meet patrons needs as they are shaped and expressed by their cultural backgrounds This goal is particularly important for youth library services For young people of Hispanic heritage library services attuned to their specific needs and interests are crucial Many librarians struggle with how to properly create and maintain library programs and collections that are suitable to the needs of Hispanic youth In this series of essays prepared for the Trejo Foster Foundation for Hispanic Library Education Fourth National Institute national leaders in librarianship present their insights about how best to meet the needs of young Hispanic library patrons The text is introduced by the editors and the essays are arranged in parts Programs Collections Planning and Evaluating Bibliographical Resources and For the Future Information about the contributors and an index conclude the volume Private Independent Schools ,1963 Department of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2001 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Dept. of the Interior and Related Agencies,2001 Twice-Exceptional Boys Deborah Gennarelli,2022-10-01 What happens in schools to children who are 2e Too often schools place focus on the disability and ignore the giftedness Because true abilities are not addressed and such children are placed with other educationally disabled children the gifted child loses the joy of learning The light goes out of his eyes While gifted girls are more likely to dumb down to fit in or withdraw into depression particularly if they are 2e and some boys may do the same more often the 2e boys develop behavior problems where they act out dramatically underachieve and engage in risky behaviors because they are frustrated and angry that their learning is stymied Some of these very bright young men may even end up in the juvenile justice system definitely the wrong environment for them As schools in the United States have swung toward an emphasis on science technology engineering and math STEM education the educational literature has taken a swing toward gender fairness as it relates to these fields Recent discussions include the fact that girls and women are underrepresented in STEM advanced coursework college degree programs and careers Because the discussions often focus on the reasons girls are excluded or why they sometimes exclude themselves from these endeavors boys are rarely mentioned The focus on girls has taken attention away from the fact that boys are experiencing equally troubling issues in school sometimes more so than girls According to the 2019 Digest of Education Statistics by the National Center for Education boys Were more likely to receive an out of school suspension Were expelled 2 1 2 times more than girls Were more likely to use illicit drugs Were twice as likely to be in a fight at school These inequalities also cross racial boundaries and appear to be more dramatic for minority boys Black boys were threatened or injured with a weapon at school more often than White boys Twice as many Black boys were expelled from school as compared to White boys Boys from minority and low income backgrounds are underrepresented in gifted education and over represented in special education
