On Spiritual Warfare Lt. Col. Dave Grossman, Sgt. Chris Pascoe, 2024-01-02 Answer God's call to arms. Evil from the world, the flesh, and the devil preys on those we love and stalks our every move. If we're not fighting back, we're losing. In On Spiritual Warfare, the sequel to On Spiritual Combat, Dave Grossman and Chris Pascoe guide Christians through operations of advanced spiritual warfare. Battle the forces of evil with twenty-two intensely practical WARNORDS or military warning orders drawn from the writings of Luther and Erasmus. These strategic warnings and tactical orders will equip you to recognize and fearlessly confront evil, confess and repent of your own sin, serve others as you become sanctified and mature into a triumphant spiritual warrior of God. Filled with Scripture, powerful hymns, battle prep questions, and practical direction, On Spiritual Warfare is the map you need to successfully complete your mission from God. You become victorious as a Christian by living virtuously. Victory through virtue.

A Mother's Reckoning Sue Klebold, 2016-02-15 The acclaimed New York Times bestseller by Sue Klebold, mother of one of the Columbine shooters, about living in the aftermath of Columbine. On April 20, 1999, Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold walked into Columbine High School in Littleton, Colorado. Over the course of minutes, they would kill twelve students and a teacher and wound twenty-four others before taking their own lives. For the last sixteen years, Sue Klebold, Dylan's mother, has lived with the indescribable grief and shame of that day. How could her child, the promising young man she had loved and raised, be responsible for such horror? And how, as his mother, had she not known something was wrong? Were there subtle signs she had missed? What if anything could she have done differently? These are questions that Klebold has grappled with every day since the Columbine tragedy. In A Mother's Reckoning, she chronicles with unflinching honesty her journey as a mother trying to come to terms with the incomprehensible. In the hope that the insights and understanding she has gained may help other families recognize when a child is in distress, she tells her story in full, drawing upon her personal journals, the videos and writings that Dylan left behind, and on countless interviews with mental health experts. Filled with hard-won wisdom and compassion, A Mother's Reckoning is a powerful and haunting book that sheds light on one of the most pressing issues of our time. And with fresh wounds from the Newtown and Charleston shootings, never has the need for understanding been more urgent. All author profits from the book will be donated to research and to charitable organizations focusing on mental health issues.

Trauma Scott D. Young, 2024-06-28 On August 1 1966 the United States and the rest of the world witnessed a mass shooting at the University of Texas at Austin that is still considered one of the most shocking and impactful mass murders in that country's recent history Charles Joseph Whitman was a twenty five year old married student and ex Marine who truly went ballistic on that day Sniping from the domineering UT Tower he killed or wounded more than forty victims before being shot and killed by police As a former Marine and excellent marksman Whitman had extensive experience with firearms but had no history of criminal activity or mental illness The shooting spree therefore left many scrambling for answers A clue emerged from Whitman's suicide note In it he said that he knew something was wrong with himself and requested that an autopsy be performed after his death A malignant tumour was found deep in his brain which ignited a fierce debate amongst medical experts about its role in Whitman's final violent actions Cause of Death: Ballistic Trauma seeks to settle this debate by explaining the mechanisms of how the tumour was instrumental in influencing Whitman's behaviour The book explores how obstructive hydrocephalus and temporal lobe seizures may have led to the destructive events on that fateful day Written by retired medical oncologist Dr Scott Young who spent more than twenty years caring for patients with brain tumours this book explores the neuroscience behind this mass murder Drawing upon problem solving techniques used in forensics and supported with extensive references and images Young puts forth an argument that Charles Whitman was probably not legally responsible for his actions This is his first book The Psychology of Extreme Violence Clare Allely, 2020-04-14

Featuring a unique overview of the different forms of extreme violence this book considers the psychology of extreme violence alongside a variety of contributing factors such as brain abnormalities in homicide offenders Featuring several contemporary real world case studies this book offers insight into the psychology of serial homicide offenders mass shooters school shooters and lone actor terrorists The main purpose of this book is not to glorify or condemn the actions of these individuals but to attempt to explain the motivations and circumstances that inspire such acts of extreme violence By adopting a detailed case study approach it aims to increase our understanding of the specific motivations and psychological factors underlying extreme violence Using nontechnical language this book is the ideal companion for students researchers and forensic practitioners interested in the multidisciplinary nature of extreme violence This book will also be of interest to students taking courses on homicide mass shooting school shooting terrorism forensic psychology and criminology and criminal justice
