

Research Paper

The purpose of your research is to provide the reader with background information about your problem.

- This portion needs to be typed with 12 point, legible, font and should be double-spaced.
- You must have at least three different sources for your research. Only one source may be an encyclopedia. These sources will be cited in your bibliography.
- The title of this page is your problem statement/question

Paragraph 1. Introductory Paragraph

- The first paragraph should begin with an interesting fact, an intriguing statistic, or a relevant quote related to your topic.
- Explain why your problem is important
- Introduce what you plan to cover in your paper.

Body of research. (2 paragraphs)

- Should focus on the topics connected to your problem.
- Should provide the reader with the necessary information to fully understand the problem you plan to investigate

Final Paragraph. Conclusion

- Summarize the information you presented in the body.
- Your hypothesis should be introduced here. – A hypothesis is an educated guess about the possible solution to your problem. This is a single sentence beginning with the words "I think" and contain an "if-then" statement.
- End the concluding paragraph with a brief (1-2 sentences) description of the experiment you plan to conduct.

Before you Begin:

- You must gather pertinent information for your report. We will work in library a couple days.
- As you examine each source, make a separate note of each fact or quotation you might want to use in your paper. This must be done on index cards.
- Each index card must include the source of the information (author's name and page number and date of publication)
- Try to summarize the information in your own words (paraphrasing)
- Use quotation marks if you copy the information exactly. (even if you just copy a phrase)
- These sources will also be used for your Bibliography page.

Mood Boosters Liam Hall, AI, 2025-03-18 Mood Boosters offers teenagers a guide to understanding and managing mood swings by exploring the connection between lifestyle choices and emotional well-being. It uniquely combines insights from psychology, nutrition, and sports medicine to highlight how diet, exercise, and hormones interact to shape adolescent mental health. For example, the book delves into how specific nutrients impact mood and the types of exercises that best support emotional regulation. The book emphasizes that adopting healthy dietary habits and engaging in regular physical activity can significantly improve emotional resilience. It addresses the impact of hormonal changes like those during puberty, which can be amplified by poor lifestyle choices. Mood Boosters progresses by first introducing core concepts of mood regulation and then exploring each area in detail, providing practical strategies such as meal plans, exercise routines, and mindfulness techniques to incorporate these principles into daily life. This approachable guide empowers teens to take control of their mental well being The book offers actionable advice grounded in scientific research drawing from various studies to give a robust evidence based approach The book helps readers understand how lifestyle choices can mitigate teen anxiety and improve overall mental well being by providing a framework for creating sustainable habits
