Denmark Travel Adventures Elizabet Olesen, 2009-07-15 Denmark is primarily made up of one peninsula Jutland Jylland in Danish and two islands Sealand Sjælland and Funen Fyn Sealand is the bigger of the two islands and also where Copenhagen the capital and biggest city is located Denmark is the smallest of the three Scandinavian countries with only 43 000 square km There are over 400 islands in total but only 100 of them are inhabited The country has 4 500 miles of coast line and you are never more than 30 miles from the sea no matter where you are in the country The biggest island in the world Greenland also belongs to Denmark as do the Faroe Islands If Greenland were to be included in the total area of the country Denmark would be the biggest country in Europe by far and one of the biggest in the world Denmark is perhaps the most popular of the three countries for campers There are more than 500 campsites all over the country The Danish word for inn is kro and if you see that word on a sign along the road you have found the perfect combination of a place to stay and a place to eat A long time ago when people traveled by horse it was decided that a kro should be placed every 20 km along all common roads in Denmark and still today you will find inns all over the country They are as popular as ever for spending the night grabbing a bite to eat or both Denmark is the number one biking country of the three Being a small and flat country it's often the best way of getting around and biking is extremely popular for recreation Denmark has over 6 200 miles of designated biking trails These are just a few details covered in this comprehensive guide to all the activities in the country plus where to stay and where to dine This is an excerpt from our much larger guide to Scandinavia

The Making of Place and People in the Danish Metropolis Christian Sandbjerg Hansen, 2021-04-05 This book investigates the sociohistorical making of place and people in Copenhagen from around 1900 to the present day Drawing inspiration from Pierre Bourdieu s sociology of social space and symbolic power and from Lo c Wacquant s hypothesis of advanced marginality and territorial stigmatisation the book explores the genesis and development of the notorious neighbourhood of Copenhagen North West As an extraordinary place the North West provides an illustrative case of Danish welfare and urban history that questions the epitome on inclusive Copenhagen Through detailed empirical analysis the book spotlights three angles and entanglements of the social history of this area of Copenhagen the production of socio spatial constructions and authoritative categorisations of the neighbourhood especially by the state and the media the local social pedagogical interventions and symbolic boundary drawings by welfare agencies in the neighbourhood and the residents subjective experiences of place social divisions and dis honour In this way The Making of Place and People in the Danish Metropolis analyses how social symbolical and spatial structures dynamically intertwine and contribute to the fashioning of divisions of inequality and marginality in the city over the course of some 125 years It will appeal to scholars of sociology urban studies and urban history with interests in social welfare
