Pacifism and Pentecostals in South Africa Marius Nel,2018-06-27 Most of the early twentieth century Pentecostal denominations were peace churches that encouraged a stance of conscientious objection However since the Second World War Pentecostals have largely abandoned their pacifist viewpoint as they have taken on a more literal Biblical hermeneutic from their interaction with Evangelical denominations This book traces the history of nonviolence in Pentecostalism and suggests that a new hermeneutic of the Bible is needed by today s Pentecostals in order for them to rediscover their pacifist roots and effect positive social change The book focuses on how Pentecostalism has manifested in South Africa during the twentieth century Much of the available academic literature on hermeneutics and exegesis in the field of Pentecostal Studies is of an American or British European origin This book redresses this imbalance by exploring how the Bible has been used amongst African Pentecostals to teach on the apparent paradox of a simultaneously wrathful and loving God It then goes onto suggest that how the Bible is read directly affects how Pentecostals view their role as potential reformers of society So it must be engaged seriously and thoughtfully By bringing Pentecostalism s function in South African society to the fore this book adds a fresh perspective on the issue of pacifism in world Christianity As such it will be of great use to scholars of Pentecostal Studies Theology and Religion and Violence as well as those working in African Studies

A Passion for success Sivalingum Moodly,2022-01-01 this book titled A Passion For Success demonstrates forcefully how the identified individuals despite their blindness surmounted challenges in their own lives in order to achieve success and in doing so invariably improved the quality of lives of others Consisting of fourteen chapters each containing a unique story with a compelling theme the underlying message in the book appears to resonate with the view of Booker T Washington 1856 1915 a leading African American intellectual of the 19 century who observes that Success is to be measured not so much by the position one has reached in life as by the obstacles one has overcome while trying to succeed

Information Systems GIS and Spatial Analysis 3D and Visualisation Complex Systems Simulation Teaching Archaeology in the Digital Age Innovations and Challenges in Applied Linguistics from the Global South Alastair Pennycook, Sinfree Makoni, 2019-07-23 Innovations and Challenges in Applied Linguistics from the Global South provides an original appraisal of the latest innovations and challenges in applied linguistics from the perspective of the Global South. Global South perspectives are encapsulated in struggles for basic economic, political and social transformation in an inequitable world and are not confined to the geographical South. Taking a critical perspective on Southern theories demonstrating why it is important to view the world from Southern perspectives and why such positions must be open to critical investigation, this book charts the impacts of these theories on approaches to multilingualism, language learning, language in education, literacy and diversity, language rights and language policy. It provides broad historical and geographical understandings of the movement towards a Southern perspective and draws on Indigenous and Southern ways of thinking that challenge mainstream viewpoints. It seeks to develop alternative understandings of applied linguistics, expand the intellectual repertoires of the discipline and challenge the complicities between applied linguistics, colonialism and capitalism. Written by two renowned scholars in the field, Innovations and Challenges in Applied Linguistics from the Global South is key reading for advanced students and researchers of applied linguistics, multilingualism, language and education, language policy and planning, and language and identity. The Thought at the Back of the Mind Annette Aronowicz, 2024-10-31 The Thought at the Back of the Mind is a plea for the centrality of the humanities as a vehicle of knowledge about ourselves and about the reality around us. It illustrates the interpretative arts through Aronowicz's close reading of Charles P. Guy, Don DeLillo, Bernard d'Espagnat, Wysawa Szymborska and Marilynne Robinson. Each author exhibits a complex relationship to the narratives emanating from the sciences: wonder, terror, appreciation, resistance. All in different ways point to a dimension of the human that cannot be captured through the scientific method. For the most part they make their points not through abstract argument but through an exploration of daily life. Each writer gives pride of place to metaphor, humor and or intuition as indispensable conduits to the reality within and without us. The Thought at the Back of the Mind explores the religious dimension embedded in the narratives emanating from the natural sciences as well as in the quest to formulate what eludes them. These two contrary dimensions of our relation to the sciences in their various configurations reveal us to ourselves in our historical moment. Self-directed multimodal learning in higher education Jako Olivier, 2020-12-31 This book aims to provide an overview of theoretical and practical considerations in terms of self-directed multimodal learning within the university context. The Work of Repair Thomas Cousins, 2023-06-06

In the timber plantations in northeastern South Africa laborers work long hours among tall swaying lines of eucalypts on land once theirs In 2008 at the height of the HIV AIDS crisis timber corporations distributed hot cooked meals as a nutrition intervention to bolster falling productivity and profits But life and sustenance are about much more than calories and machinic bodies What is at stake is the nurturing of capacity across all domains of life physical relational cosmological in the form of amandla An Nguni word meaning power strength or capacity amandla organizes ordinary concerns with one s abilities to earn a wage to strengthen one s body and to take care of others it describes the potency of medicines and sexual vitality and it captures a history of anti colonial and anti apartheid struggle for freedom The ordinary actions coordinated by and directed at amandla do not obscure the wounding effects of plantation labor or the long history of racial oppression but rather form the basis of what the Algerian artist Kader Attia calls repair In this captivating ethnography Cousins examines how amandla as the primary material of the work of repair anchors ordinary scenes of living and working in and around the plantations As a space of exploitation that enables the global paper and packaging industry to extract labor power the plantation depends on the availability of creative action in ordinary life to capitalize on bodily capacity The Work of Repair is a fine grained exploration of the relationships between laborers in the timber plantations of KwaZulu Natal and the historical decompositions and reinventions of the milieu of those livelihoods and lives Offering a fresh approach to the existential ethical and political stakes of ethnography from and of late liberal South Africa the book attends to urgent questions of postapartheid life the fate of employment the role of the state in providing welfare and access to treatment the regulation of popular curatives the queering of kinship and the future of custom and its territories Through detailed descriptions Cousins explicates the important and fragile techniques that constitute the work of repair the effort to augment one s capacity in a way that draws on acknowledges and reimagines the wounds of history keeping open the possibility of a future through and with others
