Russel Botman Albert Grundlingh, 2017-10-18 This celebratory volume tells the story of the late Russel Hayman Botman who died suddenly early in his second term as Rector and Vice Chancellor of Stellenbosch University Botman's story is told from his earliest childhood years until his last day as rector The nature of tributes and celebratory volumes is that it can never be exhaustive It tells a rich story from limited perspectives It however serves as invitation stimulus and inspiration to others connected to Botman to also tell their stories about his story

Military Psychology for Africa Gideon Van Dyk, 2016-03-17 Military Psychology for Africa is the first textbook of its kind from Africa Selected authors with competent military psychology knowledge skills expertise and experience each contributed a chapter to this unique book The book empowers academics students and military fellows to apply this knowledge at academic institutions and military units during operations and in presenting short courses The book will also equip soldiers with new knowledge for advancing peace on the continent and abroad

Reflections on the Complexities of the Covid-19 Pandemic Shadrack B. Ramokgadi, Mbekezeli C. Mkhize, 2022-12-31 This book offers an original and timeous snapshot of contemporary lines of argument from various authors in the Global South on the Covid 19 pandemic as a complex emergency at the height of the pandemic At the time of writing there were various levels of uncertainties from different countries citizens the public and private sectors industries and economies who were in disarray The book traces the origins of the Covid 19 pandemic in the province of Wuhan in China the challenges and the responses from a multiplicity of countries particularly from the Global South Of particular importance the book notes that vaccine uncertainty limiting the spread of the virus and loss of life and employment were some of the major challenges that these governments and citizens were confronted with Also the sizes of various economies lead to various challenges that the abovementioned governments shouldered The contributors shed light on various aspects related to the Covid 19 pandemic from various countries in the Global South and include but were not limited to securitised lockdowns the use of militaries and complete closures of national and sometimes fragile economies as well as overburdened health systems These are just some dire consequences of Covid 19 on the public and private sector industries and economy The book emphasises that despite myriad challenges reported there are various lessons that can be learnt in terms of how the countries responded to the pandemic and in terms of how future pandemics can be handled Finally this is an interesting piece of work wherein contributors as a collective seek to shed light with regards to the unique perspectives from the Global South and at the same time give some guidance related to their specific areas of focus
