Cultivating Moral Character and Virtue in Professional Practice David Carr, 2018-03-05 Cultivating Moral Character and Virtue in Professional Practice is a pioneering collection of essays focused on the place of character and virtue in professional practice Professional practices usually have codes of conduct designed to ensure good conduct but while such codes may be necessary and useful they appear far from sufficient since many recent public scandals in professional life seem to have been attributable to failures of personal moral character This book argues that there is a pressing need to devote more attention in professional education to the cultivation or development of such moral qualities as integrity courage self control service and selflessness Featuring contributions from distinguished leaders in the application of virtue ethics to professional practice such as Sarah Banks Ann Gallagher Geoffrey Moore Justin Oakley and Nancy Sherman the volume looks beyond traditional professions to explore the ethical dimensions of a broad range of important professional practices Inspired by a successful international and interdisciplinary conference on the topic the book examines various ways of promoting moral character and virtue in professional life from the general ethical perspective of contemporary neo Aristotelian virtue theory The professional concerns of this work are of global significance and the book will be valuable reading for all working in contemporary professional practices It will be of particular interest to academics practitioners and postgraduate students in the fields of education medicine nursing social work business and commerce and military service

Migrant Health Professionals and the Global Labour Market Radha Adhikari,2019-10-29 This book offers a fresh perspective on gender debates in Nepal and analyses how the international migration of the first generation of professional female Nepali nurses has been a catalyst for social change With unprecedented access to study participants in Nepal the source country following them and their networks in the UK the destination country this ethnographic study explores Nepali nurses migration journeys relocation experiences and their international migration dreams and aspirations It illustrates how migrant nurses strive to manage social and professional difficulties as they work towards achieving their ultimate migration aims The book shows that nursing shortages and international nurse migration are issues of gender on a global scale and that the current trend of privatisation in health systems makes the labour market vulnerable and stimulates international migration of health professionals Arguing that international nurse migration is an integral part of the globalisation of health the author highlights key policy strategies that are useful for global nursing and health workforce management A well informed and much needed study of nurse migration in the global healthcare market this book will be of interest to professionals and academics working in nursing studies health and social care studies gender and international migration studies and global health studies as well as South Asian studies

Career Planning for Everyone in the NHS Ruth Chambers,2018-10-08 This book is for users of comparisons in health care and for researchers More clinicians managers and patient groups are using research to make comparisons Information technology and new databases make comparisons easier but not necessarily better Comparisons can help us discover the causes of disease whether a treatment is effective if it is worth the cost whether a service is performing badly and the value of a health reform or policy Comparisons can help us learn from other cultures and understand the implications for our own health services Yet it is all too easy to misinterpret or uncritically accept a study and reach invalid conclusions This book encourages decision makers to make more use of comparative research but with an awareness of the limitations of comparisons Its practical approach enables researchers to plan and carry out better comparative research and to develop new methodologies for this fast growing field of research
