Re-mapping World Literature Gesine Müller, Jorge J. Locane, Benjamin Loy, 2018-03-05 How can we talk about World Literature if we do not actually examine the world as a whole Research on World Literature commonly focuses on the dynamics of a western center and a southern periphery ignoring the fact that numerous literary relationships exist beyond these established constellations of thinking and reading within the Global South Re Mapping World Literature suggests a different approach that aims to investigate new navigational tools that extend beyond the known poles and meridians of current literary maps Using the example of Latin American literatures this study provides innovative insights into the literary modeling of shared historical experiences epistemological crosscurrents and book market processes within the Global South which thus far have received scant attention The contributions to this volume from renowned scholars in the fields of World and Latin American literatures assess travelling aesthetics and genres processes of translation and circulation of literary works as well as the complex epistemological entanglements and shared worldviews between Latin America Africa and Asia A timely book that embraces highly innovative perspectives it will be a must read for all scholars involved in the field of the global dimensions of literature

Entanglements: Envisioning World Literature from the Global South Andrea Scheurer, Maren Schulze-Engler, Frank Wegner, Jarula M. I. Gremels, 2022-05-17 Entanglements Envisioning World Literature from the Global South scrutinizes current debates to bring historical and contemporary South South entanglements to the fore and to develop a new understanding of world literature in a multipolar world of globalized modernity The volume challenges established ideas of world literature by rethinking the concept along the notion of entanglements as a field of variously criss crossing relations of literary activity beyond the confines of literary canons cultural containers or national borders The collection presents individual case studies from a variety of language traditions that focus on particular literary relationships and practices across Africa the Americas Asia and Europe as well as new fictional poetical and theoretical conceptions of world literature in order to broaden our understanding of the multilateral entanglements within a widening communicative network that shape our globalized world

Patrick Dove,2016-06-21 Literature and Interregnum examines the unraveling of the political forms of modernity through readings of end of millennium literary texts by C sar Aira Marcelo Cohen Sergio Chejfec Diamela Eltit and Roberto Bola o The opening of national spaces to the global capitalist system in the 1980s culminates in the suspension of key principles of modernity most notably that of political sovereignty While the neoliberal model subjugates modern forms of social organization and political decision making to an economic rationale the market is unable to provide a new ordering principle that could fill the empty place formerly occupied by the national figure of the sovereign The result is a situation that resembles what the Italian political philosopher Antonio Gramsci termed interregnum an in between time in which the old order is dying and the new cannot be born The recoding of history as literary form provides occasions for reconsidering modern conceptualizations of aesthetic experience mood temporality thought politics ethical experience as well as of literature itself as social institution In his analysis Patrick Dove seeks to create dialogues between literature and theoretical perspectives including Continental philosophy political thought psychoanalysis and sociology of globalization The author highlights the connections between mass media technology politics and economics Investigación y transferencia de
