An Anthropology of the Qur'an Ahmed Achmati, 2021-11-29 This book presents an anthropological study of the Qur'an offering an unprecedented challenge to some of the epistemological and metaphysical assumptions of the taw dic discourses Combining primary textual materials and anthropological analysis this book examines transcendence as a core principle of the Qur'an uniquely signified in the divine name al-Quddus the Holy. It shows how the traditional representations of Allah constitute an inversion of this attribute, examines how this inversion has been conceived, authorized and maintained, and demonstrates how it has affected Islamic thinking and practices, especially as it relates to authority. This book also explores how a return to the Qur'anic primacy of God's otherness as al-Quddus can influence Islamic thinking and practices moving forward. Therefore, it will be highly useful to scholars of Islamic Studies, philosophical theology, Qur'anic studies, political science, ethics, anthropology, and religious studies.

Islam and the Drive to Global Justice Louay M. Safi, 2023-12-15. Islam and the Drive to Global Justice: Principles of Justice Beyond Dominant Ethnic and Religious Communities contributes to the current debate over Islam in a globalizing world by drawing on the contemporary and historical justice discourse within the Islamic traditions and by examining policies and practices of global powers towards Muslim populations in the Global South. The discussions aim at bringing insights from Islamic authoritative sources and scholarly literature and to enrich the current deliberation on the universality of modern values and the relevance of the Islamic traditions to advancing a more inclusive notion of global justice. The book examines in particular several models rooted in the monotheistic traditions crucial for overcoming three interrelated challenges facing the dispensation of justice in contemporary society: inclusivity, disparity, and selectivity. The book uses the normative framework it outlines to analyze the connection between European powers and the autocratic regimes in the MENA region. Several chapters in the book illustrate how supporting Arab autocracy contributes to the rise of religious extremism and has already produced failed states in Syria, Lebanon, Iraq, and Yemen that undermine both national and global peace and stability.

The Sociology of Shari'a Adam Possamai, James T. Richardson, Bryan S. Turner, 2023-04-10. This edited collection focuses on the comparative analysis of the application of Shari'a in countries with Muslim minorities (e.g. USA, Australia, Germany, and Italy) and majorities (e.g. Malaysia, Bangladesh, Turkey, and Morocco). Most chapters in this new edition have been revised, and the book as a whole has been updated to give even more international coverage. This text provides a sociological and global analysis of a phenomenon that goes beyond the West versus the rest dichotomy. One example of this is how included are case studies in Muslim minority countries not exclusively located in the West. Although the contributors of this book come from various disciplines such as law, anthropology, and sociology, this volume has a strong sociological focus on the analysis of Shari'a. The final part of the book indeed draws out from all the case studies explored some ground-breaking theories on the sociology of Shari'a, such as the application of Black, Chambliss, and Eisenstein's sociological theories. This text appeals to students and researchers working in the sociology of religion.

Negotiating State and Non-State Law Michael A. Helfand, 2015-07-02 Non state law is playing an increasing role in both public and private ordering. Numerous organizations have emerged alongside the nation state each purporting to provide their members with rules and norms to govern their conduct and organize their affairs. The nation state increasingly finds itself sandwiched between two broad and contrasting categories of non state law. The first law above the state captures legal systems that function across the territorial borders of nation states. The second category law below the state includes forms of local customary religious and indigenous law. As these forms of non state law persist and proliferate alongside the nation state the relationship between state and non state law becomes more complex multifaceted and tense. This volume addresses this relationship considering whether and to what extent state and non state law can coexist and how each form of law seeks to influence as well as transform the other. Routledge Handbook of Middle East

Nabil Ouassini, Anwar Ouassini, 2023-03-03 The objective of Arab Criminology is to establish a criminological subfield called Arab Criminology. The ever evolving field of criminology has advanced in the past decade yet many impediments remain. Unlike criminology in Africa Asia the Americas Europe and Oceania which is based merely on geopolitical constructs the Arab world has unique commonalities that do not exist in the other established subfields of criminology. The Arab world has largely remained in criminology's periphery despite the region's considerable importance to current international affairs. In response this book explores two main questions: Why should we and how do we establish a subfield in Arab criminology? The authors examine the state of criminology in the Arab world define its parameters and present four components that bond and distinguish Arab criminology from other criminological area studies. They then identify the requirements for establishing Arab criminology and detail how local regional and international researchers can collaborate develop and expand the subfield. Arab criminology will challenge some of the recurrent Orientalist and Islamophobic tropes in Northern criminology and progress.

Toward Gender Equality in Islam Ziba Mir-Hosseini, 2022-04-07 If justice is an intrinsic value in Islam why have women been treated as second class citizens in Islamic legal tradition Today the idea of gender equality inherent to contemporary conceptions of justice presents a challenge to established patriarchal interpretations of Shari'a In thought provoking discussions with six influential Muslim intellectuals Abdullahi An-Na'im Amina Wadud Asma Lamrabet Khaled Abou El Fadl Mohsen Kadivar and Sedigheh Vasmaghi Ziba Mir-Hosseini explores how egalitarian gender laws might be constructed from within the Islamic legal framework Navigating Religious Authority in Muslim Societies Asif Mohiuddin, 2023-11-09

Globalisation stands as an indispensable lens through which to analyse current cultural political and social transformations This prevailing paradigm acknowledged by its advocates and critics profoundly shapes our environment Within this global landscape Islam's position is noteworthy often perceived as rejecting globalisation and its secular underpinnings This book offers a perspective of the global resurgence of religion in general and the revival of Islam in particular as crucial features of globalisation Furthermore the book deeply explores how Islamist groups strategically challenge religious authority utilising social media and the internet to reshape their spheres of influence By exploring these dynamics the book aims to provide comprehensive insights into the interplay between Islamist strategies digital platforms and religious institutions within our interconnected world Radical Orthodoxy in a Pluralistic World Angus M. Slater, 2018-01-02 Radical Orthodoxy remains an important movement within Christian theology but does it relate effectively with an increasingly pluralist and secular Western society Can it authentically communicate the beauty and desire of the divine to such a diverse collection of theological accounts of meaning This book re-assesses the viability of the social model given by John Milbank before attempting an out-narration of this vision with a more convincing account of the link between the example of the Trinitarian divine and the created world It also touches on areas such as interreligious dialogue particularly between Christianity and Islam as well as social issues such as marginalisation integration and community relations in order to chart a practical way forward for the living of a Christian life within contemporary plurality This is a vital resource for any Theology academic with an interest in Radical Orthodoxy and conservative post-modern Christian theology It will also appeal to scholars involved in Islamic Studies and studying interreligious dialogues International Law, Necropolitics, and Arab Lives Khaled Al-Kassimi, 2022-10-27 International Relations and International Law continue to be accented by epistemic violence by naturalizing a separation between law and morality What does such positivist juridical ethos make possible when considering that both disciplines reify a secular immanent ontology International Law Necropolitics and Arab Lives emphasizes that positivist jurisprudence re conquered Arabia by subjugating Arab life to the power of death using extrajudicial techniques of violence seeking the implementation of a New Middle East that is no longer resistant to Latin European modernity but amenable to such exclusionary telos The monograph goes beyond the limited remonstrations asserting that the problem with both disciplines is that they are primarily Eurocentric Rather the epistemic inquiry uncovers that legalizing necropower is necessary for the temporal coherence of secular modernity since a humanitarian logic masks sovereignty inherently being necropolitical by categorizing Arab Islamic epistemology as an internal external enemy from which national citizenship must be defended This creates a sense of danger around which to unite modern epistemology whilst reinforcing the purity of a particular ontology at the expense of banning and de humanizing a supposed impure Arab refugee This book will be of interest to graduate students scholars and finally practitioners of international relations political theory philosophical theology and legal theory
