Harper, Doug Specht, 2021-09-28 Bringing together scholars from English literature geography politics the arts environmental humanities and sociology Imagining Apocalyptic Politics in the Anthropocene contributes to the emerging debate between bodies of thought first incepted by scholars such as Mouffe Whyte Kaplan Hunt Swyngedouw and Malm about how apocalyptic events narratives and imaginaries interact with societal and individual agency historically and in the current political moment

Exploring their own empirical and philosophical contexts the authors examine the forms of political acting found in apocalyptic imaginaries and reflect on what this means for contemporary society By framing their arguments around either pre apocalyptic peri apocalyptic or post apocalyptic narratives and events a timeline emerges throughout the volume which shows the different opportunities for political agency the anthropocenic subject can enact at the various stages of apocalyptic moments Featuring a number of creative interventions exclusively produced for the work from artists and fiction writers who engage with the themes of apocalypse decline catastrophe and disaster this innovative book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the politics of climate change the environmental humanities literary criticism and eco criticism

Poetry & Commons Daniel Eltringham, 2022-05-13 Winner of the ASLE UKI Book Prize 2023 The commons and enclosure are among the most vital ways of thinking about poetry today posing urgent ecological and political questions about land and resource ownership and use Poetry Commons is the first study to read postwar and contemporary poetry through this lens by putting it in dialogue with the Romantic experience of agrarian dispossession Employing an innovative transhistorical structure the book demonstrates how radical Anglophone poetries since 1960 have returned to the enclosure of the commons in response to political and ecological crises It identifies a commons turn in contemporary lyric that contests the new enclosures of globalized capital and resource extraction In lucid close readings of a rich field of experimental poetries associated with the British Poetry Revival as well as from Canada and the United States it analyses a landscape poetics of enclosure in relationship with Romantic verse Canonical Romantic poetry by Wordsworth and Clare is understood through the fine grain textures of the period s vernacular and radical verse and discourse around enclosure which the book demonstrates contain the seeds of neoliberal political economy Engaging with the work of Anne Lise Fran ois and Anna Tsing Poetry Commons theorizes commoning as marking out subsistence rhythms of resource which articulate plural irregular and tentative relations between human and nonhuman lifeworlds Nature and Literary Studies Peter Remien, Scott Slovic, 2022-08-04 Nature and Literary Studies supplies a broad and accessible overview of one of the most important and contested keywords in modern literary studies Drawing together the work of leading scholars of a variety of critical approaches historical periods and cultural traditions the book examines nature s philosophical theological and scientific origins in literature as well as how literary representations of this concept evolved in response to colonialism industrialization and new forms of scientific knowledge Surveying nature s diverse applications in twenty first century literary studies and critical theory the volume seeks to reconcile nature s ideological baggage with its fundamental role in fostering appreciation of nonhuman being and agency Including chapters on wilderness pastoral gender studies critical race theory and digital literature the book is a key resource for students and professors seeking to understand nature s role in the environmental humanities Place in Literature Roberto Maria Dainotto, 2000 Since the 1840s when Victorian England emerged into the modern era and industrial cities became the new cultural centers regionalist literature has posited itself as an aesthetic alternative to nationalist culture Yet what differentiates regionalism's claims of authenticity derived from blood and soil from those of nationalism Through close readings and theoretical elaborations Roberto M Dainotto reveals the degree to which regionalism mimics nationalism in valorizing ethnic purity He interprets regionalism not as a genre in the pastoral tradition but as a rhetorical trope a way of reading in which regionalism figures as the other against a historical process that disrupts the organic wholeness of place Dainotto traces the genealogy of the idea of place in literature examining European texts from Victorian England to Fascist Italy He finds for example in Thomas Hardy's The Return of the Native a virtual thesaurus of regionalist commonplaces Elizabeth Gaskell's North and South mediates between Madame de Stal's privileging of the sophisticated north and Jean Jacques Rousseau's nostalgia for the naive south The regionalism of the Sicilian philosopher Giovanni Gentile exhibits a deep longing for the humanities as they define Italy and Western culture Dainotto concludes with a close look at the rhetoric of Nazism and Fascism dramatizing the convergence of regionalist aesthetics and nationalist ideology in Italy and Germany between the two World Wars

Wordsworth and the Green Romantics Lisa Ottum, Seth T. Reno, 2016-05-05 Situated at the intersection of ecocriticism affect studies and Romantic studies this collection breaks new ground on the role of emotions in Western environmentalism Recent scholarship highlights how traffic between Romantic era literature and science helped to catalyze Green Romanticism Closer to our own moment the affective turn reflects similar cross disciplinary collaboration as many scholars now see the physiological phenomenon of affect as a force central to how we develop conscious attitudes and commitments Together these trends offer suggestive insights for the study of Green Romanticism While critics have traditionally positioned Romantic Nature as idealized and illusory Romantic representations of nature are in fact ambivalent scientifically informed and ethically engaged They often reflect writers efforts to capture the fleeting experience of affect raising urgent questions about how nature evokes feelings and what demands these sensations place upon the feeling subject By focusing on the affective dimensions of Green Romanticism Wordsworth and the Green Romantics advances a vision of Romantic ecology that complicates scholarly perceptions of Romantic Nature as well as popular caricatures of the Romantics as naive nature lovers This collection will interest scholars and students of Romanticism eighteenth and nineteenth century British literature ecocriticism affect studies and those who work at the intersection of literature and science

William Wordsworth and the Ecology of Authorship Scott Hess, 2012 In William Wordsworth and the Ecology of Authorship Scott Hess explores Wordsworth's defining role in establishing what he designates as the ecology of authorship a primarily middle class nineteenth century conception of nature associated with aesthetics high culture individualism and nation Instead of viewing Wordsworth as an early ecologist Hess places him within a context that is largely cultural and aesthetic The supposedly universal Wordsworthian vision of nature Hess argues was in this sense specifically male middle class professional and culturally elite factors that continue to shape the environmental movement today
