Medicine, and Metaphysics S.F. Spicker,2012-12-06 This Festschrift is presented to Professor Hans Jonas on the occasion of his seventy fifth birthday as affirmation of the contributors respect and admiration As a volume in the series Philosophy and Medicine the contributions not only reflect certain interests and pursuits of the scholar to whom it is dedi cated but also serve to bring to convergence the interests of the contributors in the history of humanity and medicine the theory of organism medicine in the service of the patient s autonomy and the metaphysical i e phenome nological foundations of medicine Notwithstanding the nature of such personal gifts as the authors contributions which with the exception of the late Hannah Arendt s appear here for the first time the essays also transcend the personal and serve to elaborate specific themes and theses disclosed in the numerous writings of Hans Jonas The editor owes a personal debt of gratitude to many including Hannah Arendt who offered their assistance during the preparation of the volume Choice and Action Charles L.

Reid,1981 The gift of life J.M. Vorster,2021 The concept human life and what it entails have become a prominent idea in current theological ethical discourses especially in the growing Christian reflection on bioethics eco ethics and social justice Contemporary Christian ethicists focus on concepts such as flourishing life happiness and joy and how these deep human desires can be realised and fulfilled in life today amidst perennial surges of racism xenophobia sexism systemic violence and policies and structures which further poverty and other forms of social injustices Christian soteriology and subsequent moral agency grapples with the question How can humans flourish in societies today and how should Christian morality be defined and designed to be instrumental in the current pursuit of happiness joy and hope This publication aims to participate in this modern day discourse by proposing relevant theological perspectives on the concept of life and in particular its relevance for Christians living in this age and in an environment that poses major challenges to public morality and the common good In conjunction with the emerging theological interest in the concept of life this project is a modest attempt to take part in the advancement of an ethic of life for today under the rubric of an ethic of flourishing personhood The point of departure is the biblical concept of the gift of life and what this gift entails for understanding human life personhood and moral agency today The line of reasoning in this book delineates the broad concept ethic of life and the biblical concept gift of life and draws the line towards an ethic of flourishing personhood The central theoretical argument of the study is that reformed theology can give direction to the contemporary theological search for meaning and purpose of human life and offer answers to the questions on life facing humanity today especially by pursuing the idea of flourishing personhood
