Process essays are basically concerned with how something works or how to make something. These kinds of compositions are generally organized in simple sequential order. Here are five techniques that are especially useful in organizing compositions dealing with processes:

1. Specify in as few words as possible the major divisions or steps you will discuss.
2. Use topic headings to define and limit sections of your paper.
3. Use a combination of 1 and 2: Open with a list of main ideas and repeat them as topic headings.
4. Use a vivid image to help the reader see your subject.
5. Use a series of questions to control brief passages.

C. Conclusion

D. Summarize the main divisions. (optional)

E. Provide interesting, satisfying closure. (ending).

1. Time signals – first, then, next, later
2. Place signals – on the left, nearby, in the centre, beside
3. Contrast signals – however, but, unfortunately, on the contrary, on the
