Problem	The problem or conflict is what the story will mostly be about. The author usually introduces the problem early in the story.
Rising Action	The rising action are the 2-3 events that help the reader understand the problem or conflict going on in the story.
Climax	The climax is the most exciting part of the story. It is usually the big event that you won't forget.
Falling Action	The falling action are the 1-2 events that happen after the climax. These events lead up to the solution of the problem.
Resolution	The resolution usually happens at the end. This is where the main problem or conflict gets solved.
