Human Capital or Cultural Capital? George Farkas, 2017-09-05 This study seeks to reorient our understanding of the early educational determinants of social stratification outcomes It focuses on the process and consequences of unequal cognitive skill attainment for ethnic and poverty groups within our nation s cities It draws theoretically on the notion that experiences at home and school create a feedback loop by which the cultural capital of the students their toolkit of skills habits and styles with which they construct strategies of action evolves over time and largely determines differential success in mastering the teacher assigned homework Life with Gifted Children Wendy Skinner, 2020-07-01 Double Award

Winner When her seven year old son showed his understanding of the concept of infinity while talking about how zebras all have their own unique patterns of stripes Wendy Skinner knew that he was going to need something more stimulating than the regular school program her son s gifted intellect and advanced talents were going to be a challenge In this book Skinner shares her family s story of struggle and eventual success in working with the school system trying out various educational options to meet her children s needs Enlightening anecdotes of the author s experiences and discussions of a variety of educational approaches help parents reading this book discover effective strategies for minimizing parent school conflict Learn how to build trusting relationships with teachers and administrators as well as how your voice can influence school decisions that will allow your gifted child to learn and thrive Designing Early Literacy Programs Lea M.
