Reason and Emotion John Macmurray, 1935 Healing the Reason-Emotion Split Daniel S. Levine, 2020-12-29 Healing the Reason Emotion Split draws on research from experimental psychology and neuroscience to dispel the myth that reason should be heralded above emotion Arguing that reason and emotion mutually benefit our decision making abilities the book explores the idea that understanding this relationship could have long term advantages for our management of society's biggest problems Levine reviews how reason and emotion operated in historical movements such as the Enlightenment Romanticism and 1960s counterculture to conclude that a successful society would restore human connection and foster compassion in economics and politics by equally utilizing reason and emotion Integrating discussion on classic and contemporary neurological studies and using allegory the book lays out the potential for societal change through compassion and would be of interest to psychologists concerned with social implications of their fields philosophy students social activists and religious leaders The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial CC BY NC 4.0 license

Emotion, Social Theory, and Social Structure J. M. Barbalet, 2001-09-06 Emotion Social Theory and Social Structure takes sociology in a new direction It examines key aspects of social structure by using a fresh understanding of emotions categories Through that synthesis emerge new perspectives on rationality class structure social action conformity basic rights and social change As well as giving an innovative view of social processes J M Barbalet's study also reveals unappreciated aspects of emotions by considering fear resentment vengefulness shame and confidence in the context of social structure While much has been written on the social consequences of excessive or pathological emotions this book demonstrates the centrality of emotions to routine operations of social interaction Dr Barbalet also re evaluates the nature of social theory for once the importance of emotions to social processes becomes clear the intellectual constitution of sociology and therefore its history must be rethought Reason and Emotion John Macmurray,1962 Rational Woman Raia Prokhovnik,2012-11-12 To feminists and some postmodernists reason emotion and man woman represent two fundamental polarities fixed deep within Western philosophy and reflected in the structures of our languages and two sets of hierarchical power relations in patriarchal society Raia Prokhovnik challenges the tradition of dualism and argues that rational woman need no longer be a contradiction in terms Prokhovnik examines in turn the nature of dichotomy its problems and an alternative the reason emotion dichotomy dichotomies central to the man woman dualism such as sex gender and the heterosexual ist norm Emotion and Reasoning Isabelle Blanchette,2013-10-01 The interaction between emotion and cognition is a fundamental issue which has only recently been reintroduced as a legitimate object of study in experimental psychology This book examines the significant impact that affective processes have on reasoning and demonstrates how emotional reasoning cannot simply be equated with faulty reasoning Emotion and Reasoning presents contributions from leading researchers from a variety of disciplines including experimental cognitive psychology cognitive neuroscience clinical neuropsychology and experimental psychopathology The opening chapters consider how emotions affect reasoning processes in individuals living with psychopathology A second section focuses upon experimental investigations of emotion and basic reasoning processes and a final section explores the physiological bases of emotion reasoning interaction Together the chapters in this volume provide a multidisciplinary overview of key topics on emotion and reasoning and a survey of recent research in this area Emotion and Reasoning will be of great interest to advanced students researchers and practitioners in the fields of cognitive psychology clinical psychology and affective neuroscience Ethics, Emotion, Education, and Empowerment Lisa Kretz,2020-10-14 Universities teach courses in ethics but do they teach students how to be ethical in practice Lisa Kretz s Ethics Emotion Education and Empowerment explores the ways that philosophical ethics are currently taught and argues that dominant approaches fail to adequately support ethical action in part because emotions are all too often ignored or repressed in university classrooms In isolation abstract theoretical content fails to motivate The ability to reason through an ethical dilemma does not by itself of necessity impact ethical action Empowered action requires intentional emotional engagement Kretz argues that part of the reason affective pedagogy fails to get sufficient uptake is due to the operations of oppression There is a long history of the reason emotion dualism undermining recognition of the necessary and valuable epistemic roles emotions play in moral life and serving as a political tactic to undermine the experience of oppressed groups This impoverishes ethical pedagogy because it is to the detriment of their ability to teach ethics in a comprehensive way and strips the potential of supporting students to enact their own reflectively held ethical beliefs and values Using the example of the environmental crisis Kretz makes a case for supporting students as engaged activists aware of their capacity to ethically change the world Emotion in Organizational Change Usman Talat,2016-12-19 This book constructs a multi disciplinary interpretation of emotion specifically applied and discussed within Organizational Change environments Including a range of perspectives from Philosophy Evolutionary Sciences Psychology and Sociology Emotion in Organizational Change also provides a historical picture of our knowledge of emotion The author explores how this can contribute towards a novel understanding of a pervasive phenomenon in society and its organizations Creating Through Mind and Emotions Mário Ming Kong,Maria do Rosário Monteiro,Maria João Pereira Neto,2022-07-01 The texts presented in Proportion Harmonies and Identities PHI Creating Through Mind and Emotions were compiled to establish a multidisciplinary platform for presenting interacting and disseminating research This platform also aims to foster the awareness and discussion on Creating Through Mind and Emotions focusing on different visions relevant to Architecture Arts and Humanities Design and Social Sciences and its importance and benefits for the sense of identity both individual and communal The idea of Creating Through Mind and Emotions has been a powerful motor for development since the Western Early Modern Age Its theoretical and practical foundations have become the working tools of scientists philosophers and artists who seek strategies and policies to accelerate the development process in different contexts Black Natural Law Vincent W. Lloyd,2016 Black Natural Law offers a new way of understanding the African American political tradition Iconoclastically attacking left including James Baldwin and Audre Lorde right including Clarence Thomas and Ben Carson and center Barack Obama Vincent William Lloyd charges that many Black leaders today embrace secular white modes of political engagement abandoning the deep connections between religious philosophical and political ideas that once animated Black politics By telling the stories of Frederick Douglass Anna Julia Cooper W E B Du Bois and Martin Luther King Jr Lloyd shows how appeals to a higher law or God s law have long fueled Black political engagement Such appeals do not seek to implement divine directives on earth rather they pose a challenge to the wisdom of the world and they mobilize communities for collective action Black natural law is deeply democratic while charismatic leaders may provide the occasion for reflection and mobilization all are capable of discerning the higher law using our human capacities for reason and emotion At a time when continuing racial injustice poses a deep moral challenge the most powerful intellectual resources in the struggle for justice have been abandoned Black Natural Law recovers a rich tradition and it examines just how this tradition was forgotten A Black intellectual class emerged that was disconnected from social movement organizing and beholden to white interests Appeals to higher law became politically impotent overly rational or overly sentimental Recovering the Black natural law tradition provides a powerful resource for confronting police violence mass incarceration and today s gross racial inequities Black Natural Law will change the way we understand natural law a topic central to the Western ethical and political tradition While drawing particularly on African American resources Black Natural Law speaks to all who seek politics animated by justice The Routledge International Handbook of Teacher and School Development

Christopher Day, 2012 The contributions are authoritative and of high quality This is an important resource The Teacher Trainer A seminal state of the art critical review of teacher and school development which touches upon and discusses issues at both policy and practice levels The history of emotions Rob Boddice, 2024-02-13 This book introduces students and professional historians to the main areas of concern in the history of emotions and its intersection with emotion research in other disciplines It discusses how the emotions intersect with other lines of historical research relating to power practice society and morality The revised and fully updated second edition of the book demonstrates the field's centrality to historiographical practice as well as the importance of this kind of historical work for general interdisciplinary understandings of the value and the meaning of human experience Work, Consumption and Capitalism Lynne Pettinger, 2017-09-15 Sonic branding guerrilla marketing celebrity endorsements customer service excellence and multi channel advertising are just some of the popular sales techniques that currently promote consumerism in contemporary capitalism Considerable energy is devoted to encouraging consumers to desire new fashions to celebrate good design to have feelings for brands and to immerse themselves in sensory experiences without worrying about the ethics of their practices Work Consumption and Capitalism looks at how consumption is produced by focusing on the multiple kinds of work that make consumption possible from advertising creatives to fashion designers from self service checkouts to the hippest barista in the coolest coffee shop The text encourages students to consider the place of consumerism in global capitalism to develop their own answers to the question How is consumption made possible This wide ranging study of the relations between work consumption and capitalism draws on interdisciplinary research in cultural and economic sociology history marketing studies and cultural studies With research tasks and discussion questions at the end of each chapter and case studies throughout it stands as an accessible introduction for students of sociology business and management media and communication cultural policy and cultural studies Listen to a podcast about the book Healing through the Dark Emotions Miriam Greenspan, 2004-05-11 Nautilus Book Award Gold Winner A psychotherapist offers crucial guidance on how to alter fundamentally our fearful relationship to deep feelings from depression and anxiety to grief and fear Los Angeles Times We are all touched at some point by the dark emotions of grief fear or despair In an age of global threat these emotions have become widespread and overwhelming While conventional wisdom warns us of the harmful effects of negative emotions this revolutionary book offers a more hopeful view there is a redemptive power in our worst feelings Seasoned psychotherapist Miriam Greenspan argues that it's the avoidance and denial of the dark emotions that results in the escalating psychological disorders of our time depression anxiety addiction psychic numbing and irrational violence And she shows us how to trust the wisdom of the dark emotions to guide heal and transform our lives and our world Drawing on inspiring stories from her psychotherapy practice and personal life and including a complete set of emotional exercises Greenspan teaches the art of emotional alchemy by which grief turns to gratitude fear opens the door to joy and despair becomes the ground of a more resilient faith in life This remarkable book has taught me a whole new way of thinking Harold Kushner author of When Bad Things Happen to Good People A beautiful piece of work destined to become a perennial classic Martha Beck author of The Joy Diet

In Search of Just Families Chhanda Gupta,2018-06-06 This book explores two contemporary combative views regarding the search for just families These views arise from the conundrum of the family being seen as a supportive nurturing haven versus a grievously unjust harmful institution that violates the rights and freedoms of any individual family member Triggered by anti family movements which have been inspired by the ideas of some theorists and writers the book addresses the question Is family destined to wither away It challenges the radical idea that the solution to the problem of unjust families is their complete replacement by purportedly just anti familial alternatives Chhanda Gupta advances a distinct reformist and reconciliatory view that the expulsion of either side of the family anti family binary is not the answer She seeks to syncretize the seemingly irreconcilable ideas propagated through that philosophical binary Furthermore she urges that the search for just families must find its answer in clarifying how the term just applies to the characters behaviors and attitudes of people who comprise actual families The search is not for a perfectly just society or polity or even for a perfectly just family Instead it is a search for ways to redress the remediable injustices that occur in families in order to benefit and uplift individuals and families and the societies in which they live

Critical Conversations in Philosophy of Education Wendy Kohli,2013-09-13 Critical Conversations in Philosophy of Education presents a series of conversations expressing many of the multiple voices that currently constitute the field of philosophy of education Philosophy of education as a discipline has undergone several turns the once marginal perspectives of the various feminisms critical Marxism and poststructuralist postmodernist and cultural theory have gained ground alongside those of Anglo analytic and pragmatic thought Just as Western philosophers in general are coming to terms with the end of philosophy pronouncement implicit in postmodernism so too are philosophers of education faced with similar challenges challenges to long held moral political aesthetic and epistemological commitments The contributors take up these challenges through a dialogical structure expressing differing positions without engaging in destructive critique
