NEW TESTAMENT / PAULINE EPISTLES

INTRODUCTION

The Epistle to the Romans, written by the Apostle Paul, is a key text in the New Testament. It is a letter to the Christians in Rome, written around 55-57 AD. The letter is a masterpiece of Pauline theology, presenting a systematic and comprehensive view of the Christian faith. It is a letter of instruction, a letter of encouragement, and a letter of warning. It is a letter that has shaped the Christian faith for centuries.

Key Themes

- Justification by Faith: Paul's central theme is the justification of the sinner by faith alone. He argues that we are justified by faith in Christ, not by works. This is a key message of the Gospel.
- The Role of the Law: Paul discusses the role of the Law in the Christian life. He argues that the Law is not a means of justification, but a guide to living. It is a law of love, and it is through love that we fulfill the Law.
- The Christian Life: Paul discusses the Christian life, including the role of the Holy Spirit, the importance of good works, and the need for perseverance. He encourages Christians to live a life of love, joy, and peace.

Key Verses

For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not by works, so that no one can boast. For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared that we should do. (Eph. 2:8-10)

CHAPTER 1

In the first chapter of the Epistle to the Romans, Paul introduces himself and his message. He begins by stating that he is an apostle of Christ Jesus, called to be a minister of the Gospel. He then discusses the nature of God, who is invisible and eternal. He describes God's power and His attributes, which are manifest in His creation. Paul then discusses the sinfulness of humanity, which is a result of our fallen nature. He argues that all have sinned and are under the curse of the Law. This sets the stage for the Gospel, which is the good news of God's love and grace.

CHAPTER 2

In the second chapter, Paul discusses the role of the Law. He argues that the Law is not a means of justification, but a guide to living. It is a law of love, and it is through love that we fulfill the Law. He then discusses the importance of good works, which are a result of faith. He argues that good works are a necessary part of the Christian life, and they are a way of expressing our love for God and for others.

CHAPTER 3

In the third chapter, Paul discusses the role of the Holy Spirit. He argues that the Holy Spirit is the source of our power and our strength. He is the one who enables us to live a life of love, joy, and peace. He then discusses the importance of perseverance, which is a necessary part of the Christian life. He argues that we must persevere in our faith, even in the face of persecution and trial.

The Eternal Sonship of Christ George W. Zeller, Renald E. Showers, 2008-03-01 The doctrine of eternal Sonship declares that the second person of the triune godhead has eternally existed as the Son There was never a time when he was not the Son of God At the incarnation he became a man he did not become the Son Those who deny this foundational truth teach that Jesus became the Son of God at some point in history Some say that he became the Son at his baptism others at his resurrection Most however say that he became the Son at the incarnation In this timely book the authors present with clarity the scriptural basis for the doctrine of the eternal Sonship of Christ deal thoroughly with alternate views that deny this essential doctrine and conclude with an explanation of why this truth is so vital to evangelical Christianity Religious Book Review ,1978 Be Patient (Job) Warren W.
