Pork Rissoles Recipe:

Early French Cookery D. Eleanor Scully, Terence Scully, 2002 A delicious introduction to the food prepared in wealthy medieval French households The Viandier of Taillevent Taillevent, 1988 The Viandier is the most important early recipe collection of mediaeval France Written in the fourteenth century by Guillaume Tirel alias Taillevent the chief cook of King Charles V of France it is the starting point of many culinary traditions and practices that remain at the base of modern French haute cuisine This volume is the first to present all four extant manuscripts of the Viandier arranged in parallel for easy comparison The texts of the 220 recipes are in the original French but a complete English translation is provided Of particular interest are the differences between the four manuscripts which represent more than a century of modifications in gastronomic tastes and culinary practices in French seigneurial life The commentary and notes that accompany the texts trace the significance of these modifications and indicate the influence the Viandier exercised on more recent cookery books throughout Europe This critical edition also includes a glossary and a bibliography In addition selected recipes have been adapted with minimal modifications for modern use and arranged in a menu for six people Page 4 of cover Rosemary
