Death in Briar Bottom Timothy Silver, 2024-11-12 On July 3 1972 twenty four hippies from Clearwater Florida set up tents and settled in for the night at Briar Bottom a public US Forest Service campground in western North Carolina The impromptu campout was a pit stop for the group on their way to a Rolling Stones concert in Charlotte Early that evening they drank beer smoked marijuana and listened to rock music as they anticipated the good times that lay ahead Near midnight the county sheriff showed up with six deputies allegedly responding to a noise complaint They were armed with pistols and five sawed off 12 gauge shotguns one of which discharged killing a young man named Stanley Altland To this day no one has been held responsible for the tragic incident though it happened in front of over a dozen eyewitnesses Timothy Silver writes the true story of Altland s death and its aftermath using archival research interviews with surviving Clearwater campers and newly unearthed FBI files A mix of true crime southern history and personal storytelling this book shows how in the dark of night at a remote mountain campsite the killing of an innocent man epitomized the suspicion of young people and violence toward the counterculture that gripped the nation in the early 1970s      National Library of Medicine Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1966      National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1965
