Achieving Nelson Mandela University? Sibongile Muthwa, Denver A. Webb, 2024-08-20 South Africa's higher education sector is rooted in the country's divided past A significant State driven restructuring from around 1997 to 2005 resulted in what is largely the current configuration of public universities But just over two decades later for a variety of reasons the higher education sector in South Africa appears beset with numerous challenges Nelson Mandela University is one of the public universities that emerged from the restructuring process The university is in an ongoing state of evolution of becoming It developed out of the amalgamation of the University of Port Elizabeth Port Elizabeth Technikon and incorporation of the Port Elizabeth campus of Vista University as Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University in 2005 In 2017 it was renamed Nelson Mandela University after the world renowned statesman rather than the metropolitan area in which the university is primarily located The renaming was conceptualised as more than a marketing opportunity to rebrand the university but as an opportunity to reorientate the university to reposition Nelson Mandela University as an engaged and socially embedded university in the service of society striving to be the academic expression of the values and ethos of its iconic namesake Endeavouring to be something greater and different from the norm imbues its strategy public statements and practices The determination to achieve Mandela University serves or is intended to serve as both an organising principle and a lodestar A cross section of writers from different backgrounds situates Nelson Mandela University within the contemporary historical moment from which it emerged and examines its subsequent evolution While Nelson Mandela University has performed the usual work expected of any university it has also sought to turn the university outwards to achieve a higher purpose framing itself as a values based university on a journey to become something else In Achieving Nelson Mandela University the university attempts to give an account of itself The book is an intellectual and scholarly reflection on where the university has come from and where it is seeking to go Worldviews and Values in Higher Education Madasu Bhaskara Rao,Abhilasha Singh,Pulaparthi Mallika Rao,2025-02-12 Worldviews and Values in Higher Education examines the profound influence these have in shaping institutional governance leadership and capacity building Integrating worldviews and values into institutional policies ensures that governance leadership and capacity building initiatives are coordinated and mutually supportive Arts-Based Educational Research Narratives of Academic Identities Inbanathan Naicker,Daisy Pillay,Kathleen Pithouse-Morgan,Lungile Masinga,Theresa Chisanga,Anita Hiralaal,2024-09-12 This book delves into the complexities of being and becoming an academic in higher education Inspired by the arts the book introduces new voices and insights to scholarly discussions about what constitutes data and analysis in higher education research It demonstrates ABER s ability to shape and critique academic identity narratives in response to pressing problems and dilemmas in higher education The book includes exemplars from studies conducted primarily in South African contexts and led by South African researchers It explores diverse modes including collage digital artwork letter writing metaphor creative nonfiction and theatre making Contributions from expert scholars in Canada and the USA supplement this research and show how it has been enriched by critical transcontinental conversations The authors offer new perspectives on the entwined and complex relationship between the ABER narratives and identities Expanding Perspectives on Open Science: Communities, Cultures and Diversity in Concepts and Practices L. Rabiau,2023-01-13 Armed conflicts continue to wreak havoc on children and families around the world with profound effects In 2017 420 million children nearly one in five were living in conflict affected areas an increase in 30 million from the previous year The recent surge in war induced migration referred to as a global refugee crisis has made migration a highly politicized issue with refugee populations and host countries facing unique challenges We know from research related to asylum seeking families that it is vital to think about children and families in relation to what it means to stay together what it means for parents to be separated from their children and the kinds of everyday tensions that emerge in living in dangerous insecure and precarious circumstances In Global Child the authors draw on what they have learned through their collaborative undertakings and highlight the unique features of participatory arts based and socio ecological approaches to studying war affected children and families demonstrating the collective strength as well as the limitations and ethical implications of such research Building on work across the Global South and the Global North this book aims to deepen an understanding of their tri pillared approach and the potential of this methodology for contributing to improved practices in working with war affected children and their families Political Science in South Africa Peter Vale,Pieter
