Insurance Law in China Johanna Hjalmarsson, Dingjing Huang, 2014-11-20 The Chinese insurance market is expanding enormously as risk adversity takes hold in the economy while the role of the State as guarantor of commerce is gradually reduced In addition insurance is a heavily regulated field with detailed contract law stipulations An introduction to regulation and contract law and an understanding of current issues is essential for someone seeking to do business in the Chinese market Insurance law is also a field that translates well from one jurisdiction to another and academics will be interested in understanding how issues are dealt with in another jurisdiction The book seeks to present and discuss current topics in Chinese insurance law and regulation to an English speaking audience knowledgeable of common law insurance law and international insurance business The combined effect of the papers is to present Chinese insurance law to an audience unfamiliar with Chinese law in a readable and accessible essay chapter format Each chapter is written by an expert in the field and goes beyond a basic introduction to provide in depth well researched information and academic analysis on the topic in question

Customs Bulletin and Decisions, 2003 Reports, Minutes, Papers and Miscellaneous Documents Great Britain. Dominions Royal Commission, 1914 Sir Ronald Storrs Christopher Burnham, 2024-09-09 This volume utilises the personal papers of Sir Ronald Storrs as well as other archival materials to make a microhistorical investigation of his period as Governor of Jerusalem between 1917 and 1926 It builds upon Edward Said's work on the Orientalist determining imprint by arguing that Storrs took a deeply personal approach to governing the city one determined by his upbringing his education in the English private school system and his service as a British official in Colonial Egypt It recognises the influence of these experiences on Storrs' perceptions of and attitudes towards Jerusalem identifying how these formative years manifested themselves on the city and in the Governor's interactions with Jerusalemites of all backgrounds and religious beliefs It also highlights the restrictions placed on Storrs' approach by his

British superiors Palestinians and the Zionist movement alongside the limitations imposed by his own attitudes and worldview Placing Storrs personality at the centre of discussion on early Mandate Jerusalem exposes a nuanced and complex picture of how personality and politics collided to influence its everyday life and built environment The book is aimed at historians and students of the late Ottoman Empire and British Mandate in Palestine colonialism and imperialism and microhistory
