Maoism essentially destroyed Communism Yet many people still think that Maoism and Marxism are more or less the same concept Communism or the failure of Communism The texts and analyses presented here show that the totalitarianism came from Mao alone along with the disrespect for rights Industrie Du Livre Au Canada, Avec Où Trouver Qui, 1993 What if Culture was Nature all Along? Vicki Kirby, 2017-01-18 New materialisms argue for a more science friendly humanities ventilating questions about methodology and subject matter and the importance of the non human However these new sites of attention climate biology affect geology animals and objects tend to leverage their difference against language and the discursive Similarly questions about ontology have come to eclipse and even eschew those of epistemology While this collection of essays is in kinship with this radical shake up of how and what we study the aim is to re navigate what constitutes materiality These efforts are encapsulated by a rewriting of the Derridean axiom there is no outside text as there is no outside nature What if nature has always been literate numerate social And what happens to the human if its exceptional identity and status is conceded quantum non local and ecological implication No Shelf Required 2 Sue Polanka, 2012 E book content devices and services have created challenges for libraries as well as opportunities Because the e book playing field is constantly changing any predictions are at best tenuous Librarians must be resilient in order to manage and not be managed by e books and their progenies With their explosive sales and widespread availability over the past few years e books have definitively proven that they are here to stay In this sequel to her first book of the same title the author dives even deeper into the world of digital distribution Contributors from across the e book world offer their perspectives on what is happening now and what to expect in the coming months and years Included in this resource are Guidelines for performing traditional library processes such as cataloging weeding archiving and managing e book accessibility for patrons with special needs Explorations of topics such as the e book digital divide and open access publishing Case studies from an array of academic public and school libraries offering firsthand accounts of what works what doesn't and why Discussions of the emerging model of the electronic only library and the rich possibilities of enhanced e books A Life in Words Ismat Chughtai, 2013-07-15 A Life in Words the first complete translation of Ismat Chughtai's celebrated memoir Kaghazi hai Pairahan provides a delightful account of several crucial years of her life Alongside vivid descriptions of her childhood years are the conflicted experiences of growing up in a large Muslim family during the early decades of the twentieth century Chughtai is searingly honest about her fight to get an education and the struggle to find her own voice as a writer The result is a compellingly readable memoir by one of the most significant Urdu writers of all time Marden's Guide to Manhattan Booksellers William Marden, 1996-12 When the self published Marden's Guide to Manhattan Booksellers hit the stacks in 1994 it was selected one of the outstanding reference books of the year by the New York Public Library The Strand's Marvin Mondlin called it one of the best guides of this type I've ever seen Our new and revised edition opens with a preface by Arthur Miller and details over 500 stores We are proud of this addition to our list and proud to be part of the great tradition of New York bookselling A Ransomed Dissident Igor Golomstock, 2018-10-25 In 1939 a ten year old Igor Golomstock accompanied his mother a medical doctor to the vast network of labour camps in the Russian Far East While she tended patients he was minded by assorted trusty prisoners hardened criminals and returned to Moscow an almost feral adolescent fluent in obscene prison jargon but intellectually ignorant Despite this dubious start he became a leading art historian and co author with his close friend Andrey Sinyavsky of the first deeply controversial monograph on Picasso published in the Soviet Union His writings on his 43 years in the Soviet Union offer a rare insight into life as a quietly subversive art historian and the post Stalin dissident community In vivid prose Golomstock shows the difficulties of publishing curating and talking about Western art in Soviet Russia and with self deprecating humour the absurd tragicomedy of life for the Moscow intelligentsia during Khrushchev s thaw and Brezhnev s stagnation He also offers a unique personal perspective on the 1966 trial of Sinyavsky and Yuri Daniel widely considered the end of Khrushchev s liberalism and the spark that ignited the Soviet dissident movement In 1972 he was given permission to leave the Soviet Union but only after paying a ransom of more than 25 years salary nominally intended to reimburse the state for his education A remarkable collection of artists scholars and intellectuals in Russia and the West including Roland Penrose came together to help him pay this astronomical sum His memoirs of life once in the UK offer an insider s view of the BBC Russian Service and a penetrating analysis of the notorious feud between Sinyavsky and Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn Nominated for the Russian Booker Prize on its publication in Russian in 2014 The Ransomed Dissident opens a window onto the life of a remarkable man a dissident of uncompromising moral integrity and with an outstanding gift for friendship The Publishers Weekly, 1926
