McCoppin, 2015-10-30 This examination of myths from around the world focuses on the role nature plays within mythology Creation myths from myriad cultures recognized that life arose from natural elements inextricably connecting human life to the natural world Nature as portrayed in myth is unpredictable and destructive but also redemptive providing solace and wisdom Mythology relates the human life cycle to the seasons with spring summer fall and winter as metaphors for birth adulthood old age and death The author identifies divinities who were direct representations of natural phenomena The transition of mythic representations from the Paleolithic to Neolithic period is discussed An Atheist Defends Religion Bruce Sheiman, 2009-08-04 A new perspective Defending religion as a cultural institution in the face of resurgent atheistic thought For centuries the theism atheism debate has been dominated by two positions stringent believers committed to the yes there is a God argument and atheists vehemently driven to repudiate not only God but also religion as a cultural institution To date this is the first and only mainstream book in which a nonbeliever criticizes atheism and affirms religion An Atheist Defends Religion persuasively argues that religion is overwhelmingly beneficial for humanity regardless of whether God exists based on a new paradigm of 10 affirmative dimensions that make up religious experience It also puts to rest the theory that religion is behind most of the world's sectarian violence by showing that religion becomes evil when it is politicized Readers will learn they do not have to be fundamentalists to be believers and about the value and benefits of religion itself Around the Campfire The Alpha Psi Tau Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, 2011-09-06 The culmination of the Alpha Psi Tau Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society's Honors in Action Project this anthology brings together short stories and family tales from throughout the society's chapters Each tale is unique as it is the personal tale of each of our members and memories they wish to preserve in an age of fading personal storytelling
