Passages That Compare And Contrast Poem:

Bloom's How to Write about Walt Whitman Frank D. Casale, 2009 Walt Whitman's passionate writing style and bold subject matter have deeply influenced American poetry. Nearly all of his poems were published in Leaves of Grass which Whitman obsessively expanded, edited, and republished throughout his life, ultimately leaving behind a powerful literary legacy. Twenty of his most commonly read and studied poems are discussed in depth in this volume which also features ideas for essay topics to assist students in developing critical thinking skills. They wrote in the same period, the 4th Century, and they both devoted a cycle of poems to a debated theme of the time: bishops. Aim of this work is enhancing the appreciation of these cycles. Gregory's carmina II 1 10 12 13 17 and Ephrem's carmina nisibena 13 21 as works of literature embedded in the performance and reading practices of the time in theological debates on the episcopal office and in their respective communities. The book compares performance and transmission methods of the two corpora, the word choice and imagery describing the episcopal office and how portraits of real life bishops are influenced by theological expectations on what a bishop should be Two chapters are devoted to literary phenomena peculiar to each author This book the first extensive comparison of these two authors from a literary point of view will interest scholars of Late Antique poetry and literature Church history and Patristic theology A new English translation of both corporas constitutes the appendix
