Preparing to Teach Writing James D. Williams, 2014-02-05 Preparing to Teach Writing Fourth Edition is a comprehensive survey of theories, research, and methods associated with teaching composition successfully at the middle secondary and college levels. Research and theory are examined with the aim of informing teaching. Practicing and prospective writing teachers need the information and strategies this text provides to be effective and well prepared for the many challenges they will face in the classroom. Features: Current combines discussions and references to foundational studies that helped define the field of rhetoric and composition with updated research theories and applications. Research based thorough examination of relevant research in education, literacy, cognition, linguistics, and grammar. Steadfast adherence to best practices based on how students learn and on how to provide the most effective writing instruction. A Companion Website provides sample assignments and student papers that can be analyzed using the research and theory presented in the text.

A Practical Guide to Information Literacy Assessment for Academic Librarians Carolyn Radcliff, Mary L. Jensen, Joseph A. Salem, Jr., Kenneth J. Burhanna, Julie A. Gedeon, 2007-06-30 Information literacy assessment applies to a number of contexts in the higher education arena: institutional curricula, information literacy programs, information literacy courses, course integrated information literacy instruction, and stand alone information literacy workshops and online tutorials. This practical guide provides an overview of the assessment process, planning, selection, and development of tools, and analysis and reporting of data. An assessment decision chart helps readers match appropriate assessment tools and strategies with learning outcomes and instructional settings. Assessment tools organized by type are accompanied by case studies. Various information literacy standards are referenced, with emphasis given to ACRL's Information Literacy Competency Standards for Higher Education.
