

Eagle Scout Recommendation Letter

To Whom It May Concern,

It is a source of great pride and joy to compose this Eagle Scout letter of recommendation my dear friend Mark Sheridan. I have known Mr. Sheridan for the past seven years, as he is a good friend of my nephew in school and we live in the same neighborhood.

Mr. Sheridan is a reputable, reliable and trustworthy person, as evidenced by the manner in which he lives his life. He carries out his daily activities diligently and with such honesty and takes pride in his work. He is known as a man of his word; a person of integrity. Mr. Sheridan is not one to turn his back on a neighbor in need.

I believe that he is an eligible candidate for an Eagle Scout since he lives his life in accordance with the principles set by the Eagle Scout.

Rest assured that the contents of this letter was kept strictly confidential and created for the eyes only of the members of the Eagle Scout Board of Review. Neither are the contents of the letter discussed with the candidate before or after the time that of completion.

Sincerely,

Mr. George Florsheim

power of word and the power of the government During that time major laws and legal decisions defined the circumstances and degree to which personal expression could be rightfully expressed and rightfully limited This struggle to define the parameters of free speech continues today Vibrant and passionate debates about First Amendment limitations once inspired by the dissemination of birth control information now address such issues as kneeling during the national anthem removing controversial books from public libraries attempts by the Trump administration to discredit the press and disseminating false or hateful information through social media platforms By exploring diverse examples of censorship victories and triumphs of free expression readers will better understand the enormous impact of First Amendment freedoms on American society
