Can't Pay, Won't Pay Collective Debt, 2020-06-23 Debtors have been mocked, scolded, and lied to for decades. We have been told that it is perfectly normal to go into debt to get medical care, to go to school, or even to pay for our own incarceration. We've been told there is no way to change an economy that pushes the majority of people into debt while a small minority hoards wealth and power. The coronavirus pandemic has revealed that mass indebtedness and extreme inequality are a political choice. In the early days of the crisis, elected officials drew up plans to spend trillions of dollars. The only question was where would the money go and who would benefit from the bailout. The truth is that there has never been a lack of money for things like housing, education, and health care. Millions of people never needed to be forced into debt for those things in the first place. Armed with this knowledge, a militant debtors' movement has the potential to rewrite the contract and assure that no one has to mortgage their future to survive. Debtors of the World Must Unite. As isolated individuals, debtors have little influence. But as a bloc, we can leverage our debts and devise new tactics to challenge the corporate creditor class and help win reparative universal public goods. Individually, our debts overwhelm us. But together, our debts can make us powerful.

North Macedonia International Monetary Fund. Fiscal Affairs Dept., 2022-07-11 This PEFA assessment provides a snapshot of the country's PFM system performance in order to support the government in defining PFM reform priorities. The previous assessment was conducted in 2015; therefore, the current assessment follows after the recommended time period between the two assessments. Furthermore, the scope and objectives of the reforms initiated and implemented in the intervening period makes tracking the change in the PFM system needed and meaningful. The assessment was conducted by the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank with the Ministry of Finance and other relevant country institutions being the primary beneficiaries of the assessment.
