

Les controverses à propos de restitutions : muséophobie ou tournant postcolonial?

L'exigence de retour de certains artefacts, indûment spoliés, a été formulée depuis longtemps, entre pays européens d'abord, et entre nations décolonisées et anciennes métropoles à partir de la mi-XX^e siècle, avec des résultats mitigés. Mais aujourd'hui, nécessité de restituer vaut largement pour réclamation postcoloniale à l'endroit des musées. Au-delà de promouvoir la recherche des provenances et des circulations de collections, comme la mise à jour d'anciennes législations, elle a souvent pour effet de contester la légitimité même de l'institution. Or pareil débat n'est pas sans évoquer un ensemble de controverses de longue durée à propos d'appropriations muséales et de leurs significations. On s'interrogera donc sur les spécificités de nos débats entre ennemis et amis des musées.

Sanja Perovic,2023-10-31 Stuart Brisley is a pioneering multi media and performance artist who developed performance art as a form of social action in the 1960s and 1970s This book assesses his seminal influence on British art through a focus on his lifelong engagement with the histories and imaginaries of revolution Linking revolutionary history with material from a critical dialogue established with Brisley over the last decade the book recognises Brisley s corpus as a fascinating stage for addressing important questions about the relationship of art politics and history How do we make sense of politically committed art in a contemporary context where revolution has supposedly died or is deemed impossible What can the afterlives of performance art tell us about the historical past including the promises and contradictions of revolutionary time

Space, Images, and Art Perception in Napoleonic Paris Camilla Murgia,2025-10-01 This book examines the impact of space on the perception of art and visual culture in early nineteenth century Paris It turns its attention to the way in which space determines the understanding and the development of visual culture The abundance of images their status and their employment alike offer a means to grasp the extent of the development of an approach to art which further involved the spectator Space is here conceived as a multifaceted entity spanning architectural scholarly artistic and visual dimensions These various aspects offer means to consider the way in which images work and are consumed and the individual experience they represent Space works as a link and a connecting tool between different intellectual and visual categories and this study examines how this interaction applies to works of art as well as everyday objects The Oxford Handbook of the History of Consumption Frank Trentmann,2012-03-22 The Oxford Handbook of the History of Consumption offers a timely overview of how our understanding of consumption in history has changed in the last generation Utopia's Garden

E. C. Spary,2010-12-15 The royal Parisian botanical garden the Jardin du Roi was a jewel in the crown of the French Old Regime praised by both rulers and scientific practitioners Yet unlike many such institutions the Jardin not only survived the French Revolution but by 1800 had become the world s leading public establishment of natural history the Mus um d Histoire Naturelle E C Spary traces the scientific administrative and political strategies that enabled the foundation of the Mus um arguing that agriculture and animal breeding rank alongside classification and collections in explaining why natural history was important for French rulers But the Mus um s success was also a consequence of its employees Revolutionary rhetoric by displaying the natural order they suggested the institution could assist in fashioning a self educating self policing Republican people Natural history was presented as an indispensable source of national prosperity and individual virtue Spary s fascinating account opens a new chapter in the history of France science and the Enlightenment The Politics and

Practices of Cultural Heritage in the Middle East Irene Maffi,2014-04-21 During the nineteenth century cultural heritage became a dominant feature of the political ideology of the European states and of their colonies It became a new form of legitimization for the rising nation state cementing its inextricable link with that nation s politics and practices The set of concepts and practices defining cultural heritage were exported to and imposed over the colonized populations in North Africa and the Near East. The legacy of the colonial period has proven very significant in the domain of cultural heritage which has become a crucial cultural arena in many Arab states. As in the majorities of post colonial states in the Arab world the inherited paradigm of cultural heritage has been subject to various forms of adaption and re elaboration that have made it a lively and complex space of negotiations between various actors. Thus in The Politics of Cultural Heritage in the Middle East Irene Maffi and Rami Daher draw together expert scholars to unravel these complex processes that are involved in the definition production and consumption of heritage and its material culture in the Middle East and the dynamics of the key actors involved. The variety of the cases analysed that cover the region from Morocco to Lebanon as well as the multiplicity of the actors concerned such as the state post colonial or colonial international organizations municipal councils local communities families and even exceptional personalities highlights and explores the complex processes where very local and specific dynamics intertwine with transnational economic political and cultural fluxes. In its examination of the workings of cultural heritage in the Middle East this book is an important resource for students and scholars of Middle East Studies Cultural History History of Art and Architecture and for stakeholders involved in the field of cultural heritage.

Art in Museums Susan Pearce, 2000-12-01 Canvasses past and contemporary problems of cultural representation and the relationship between the artist the museum and society. The Home, Nations and Empires, and Ephemeral Exhibition Spaces Dominique Bauer, Camilla Murgia, 2025-10-01 This book explores ephemeral exhibition spaces between 1750 and 1918. The chapters focus on two related spaces the domestic interior and its imagery and exhibitions and museums that display both national imperial identity and the otherness that lurks beyond a country's borders. What is revealed is that the same tension operates in these private and public realms namely that between identification and self projection on the one hand and alienation otherness and objectification on the other. In uncovering this the authors show that the self the citizen society and the other are realities that are constantly being asserted defined and objectified. This takes place they demonstrate in a ceaseless dynamic of projection versus alienation and intimacy versus distancing.

Mediating Memory in the Museum S. Arnold-de-Simine, 2013-10-16 Mediating Memory in the Museum is a contribution to an emerging field of research that is situated at the interface between memory studies and museum studies. It highlights the role of museums in the proliferation of the so called memory boom as well as the influence of memory discourses on international trends in museum cultures.

Pasts Beyond Memory Tony Bennett, 2004-07-31 Contributing to current debates on relationships between culture and the social and the rapidly changing practices of modern museums as they seek to shed the legacies of both evolutionary conceptions and colonial science this important new work explores how evolutionary museums developed in the USA UK and Australia in the late nineteenth century.

Nature Knowledge Glauco Sanga, Gherardo Ortalli, 2004-11 Numerous scholars in particular anthropologists historians economists linguists and biologists have over the last few years studied forms of knowledge and use of nature and of the ways nature can be protected and conserved Some of the most prominent scholars have come together in this volume to reflect on what has been achieved so far to compare the work carried out in the past to discuss the problems that have emerged from different research projects and to map out the way forward

Sculpture Workshops as Space and Concept Jane Fejfer, Kristine Bøggild Johannsen, 2022-03-20 This book explores the multifaceted aspects of sculptor s workshops from the Renaissance to the early nineteenth century Contributors take a fresh look at the sculptor s workshop as both a physical and discursive space By studying some of the most prominent artists sculptural practices the workshop appears as a multifaced sociable and practical space The book creates a narrative in which the sculptural workshop appears as a working laboratory where new measuring techniques new materials and new instruments were tested and became part of the lived experience of the artist and central to the works coming into being Artists covered include Donatello Roubilliac Thorvaldsen Canova and Christian Daniel Rauch The book will be of interest to scholars studying art history sculpture artist workshops and European studies

National Museums and Nation-building in Europe 1750-2010 Peter Aronsson, Gabriella Elgenius, 2014-12-05 Europe s national museums have since their creation been at the centre of on going nation making processes National museums negotiate conflicts and contradictions and entrain the community sufficiently to obtain the support of scientists and art connoisseurs citizens and taxpayers policy makers domestic and foreign visitors alike National Museums and Nation building in Europe 1750 2010 assess the national museum as a manifestation of cultural and political desires rather than that a straightforward representation of the historical facts of a nation National Museums and Nation building in Europe 1750 2010 examines the degree to which national museums have created models and representations of nations their past present and future and proceeds to assess the consequences of such attempts Revealing how different types of nations and states former empires monarchies republics pre modern modern or post imperial entities deploy and prioritise different types of museums based on art archaeology culture and ethnography in their making this book constitutes the first comprehensive and comparative perspective on national museums in Europe and their intricate relationship to the making of nations and states

Periodization in the Art Historiographies of Central and Eastern Europe Shona Kallestrup, Magdalena Kunińska, Mihnea Alexandru Mihail, Anna Adashinskaya, Cosmin Minea, 2022-06-07 This volume critically investigates how art historians writing about Central and Eastern Europe in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries engaged with periodization At the heart of much of their writing lay the ideological project of nation building Hence discourses around periodization such as the mythicizing of certain periods the invention of historical continuity and the assertion of national specificity contributed strongly to identity construction Central to the book s approach is a transnational exploration of how the art histories of the region not only interacted with established Western periodizations but also resonated and entangled with each other In their efforts to develop more sympathetic frameworks that refined ignored or hybridized Western models they sought to overcome the centre periphery paradigm which equated distance from the centre with temporal belatedness and artistic backwardness. The book thus demonstrates that the concept of periodization is far from neutral or strictly descriptive and that its use in art history needs to be reconsidered. Bringing together a broad range of scholars from different European institutions, the volume offers a unique new perspective on Central and Eastern European art historiography. It will be of interest to scholars working in art history, historiography and European studies. Taking the Alhambra to St. Petersburg Katrin Kaufmann, 2023-12-18. Little is known of Russian architects in depth engagement with Ibero-Islamic architecture, especially the medieval Nasrid palaces of the Alhambra in Granada in the so-called Moorish Revival. This study, rich in material, analyzes 19th-century Orientalizing buildings and interiors in St. Petersburg and traces the routes by which the formal vocabulary of the Alhambra reached Russia from Spain. Incorporating essential aspects of Russian cultural history and 19th-century European notions of the Orient, it shows that Russian architects and the Imperial Academy of Arts were among the pioneers of the Moorish Revival. The first examination of St. Petersburg's Orientalizing architecture in a pan-European context, Russian architects as pioneers of the Moorish Revival.
