Glory be to God: I can't do it with out Him!

SPEAKING AT STUDENT VENTURE: TIMBER CREEK HIGH SCHOOL

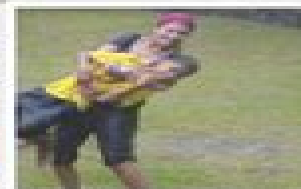

Speaking at the Student Venture meeting at Timber Creek High School was a really neat experience God provided for me. It was my first time sharing the gospel with American high schoolers. In the Philippines the blonde hair and white skin grabs the kids attention immediately but I wasn't sure what was going to be the best way to approach American teens... how to keep their attention and have them hear God's message. But, I put my faith in the Holy Spirit and once again, God pulled through. I know had I walked out in front of the high school students on my own merit I would have fumbled... but with the Holy Spirit, God gave me the words and means to keep the students attention! Not only that but He had them hear His message. These talks aren't about me, I don't really even matter. All that matters is that I trust and invite the Holy Spirit to do the talk for me. I'd love to say I am a fine speaker but the truth is, I'm not. There is nothing special about me except that I invite the Holy spirit in and then trust Him. I pray today we all have the Holy Spirit dwelling inside us and daily call upon Him!

After sharing the good news with some of the Timber Creek High School students.

Speaking with students...

Back to the Philippines Jan 2012!

I will be in the Philippines January 14-29th, please pray the hearts of the Filipinos are open!

Inscribing Death Jessey J. C. Choo, 2022-07-31 This nuanced study traces how Chinese came to view death as an opportunity to fashion and convey social identities and memories during the medieval period 200 1000 and the Tang dynasty 618 907 specifically As Chinese society became increasingly multicultural and multireligious to achieve these aims people selectively adopted portrayed and interpreted various acts of remembrance Included in these were new and evolving burial mourning and commemorative practices joint burials of spouses extended family members and coreligionists relocation and reburial of bodies posthumous marriage and divorce interment of a summoned soul in the absence of a body and many changes to the classical mourning and commemorative rites that became the norm during the period Individuals independently constructed the socio religious meanings of a particular death and the handling of corpses by engaging in and reviewing acts of remembrance Drawing on a variety of sources including hundreds of newly excavated entombed epitaph inscriptions Inscribing Death illuminates the process through which the living and the dead negotiated this multiplicity of meanings and how they shaped their memories and identities both as individuals and as part of collectives In particular it details the growing emphasis on remembrance as an expression of filial piety and the grave as a focal point of ancestral sacrifice The work also identifies different modes of construction and representation of the self in life and death deepening our understanding of ancestral worship and its changing modus operandi and continuous shaping influence on the most intimate human relationships thus challenging the current monolithic representation of ancestral worship as an extension of families rather than individuals in medieval China

To the Letter Simon Garfield, 2013-11-14 The New York Times bestselling author of Just My Type and On the Map offers an ode to letter writing and its possible salvation in the digital age Few things are as exciting and potentially life changing as discovering an old letter And while etiquette books still extol the practice letter writing seems to be disappearing amid a flurry of e mails texting and tweeting The recent decline in letter writing marks a cultural shift so vast that in the future historians may divide time not between BC and AD but between the eras when people wrote letters and when they did not So New York Times bestselling author Simon Garfield asks Can anything be done to revive a practice that has dictated and tracked the progress of civilization for more than five hundred years In To the Letter Garfield traces the fascinating history of letter writing from the love letter and the business letter to the chain letter and the letter of recommendation He provides a tender critique of early letter writing manuals and analyzes celebrated correspondence from Erasmus to Princess Diana He also considers the role that letters have played as a literary device from Shakespeare to the epistolary novel all the rage in the eighteenth century and alive and well today with bestsellers like The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society At a time when the decline of letter writing appears to be irreversible Garfield is the perfect candidate to inspire bibliophiles to put pen to paper and create a form of expression emotion and tactile delight we may clasp to our heart

The Prayer Book Interleaved ... Seventh Edition, 1873 The Prayer book interleaved with historical illustrations and explanatory notes arranged parallel to the text, by W.M. Campion and W.J. Beamont Church of England, 1888 Mere Evangelism Randy Newman, 2021-09-01 Let C S Lewis inspire and equip you to share your faith Evangelism is an extraordinary task it s what God uses to bring people from death to life But it has always been difficult C S Lewis was used by God in the conversions of countless people from friends and acquaintances in his own lifetime to modern day readers of books such as The Chronicles of Narnia and Mere Christianity the most influential Christian book of the 20th century As Tim Keller comments C S Lewis was incredibly skilled at getting Christianity across in a way that s powerful to thoughtful people So if we want help with evangelism there is much we can learn from the clarity and imagination of this hugely influential Christian writer You may feel inadequate to the task after all there is only one C S Lewis But evangelist Randy Newman skillfully helps us to apply the methods Lewis used storytelling humor imagery and more in our own conversations You will be equipped to talk about your faith and engage with Petitioning in Europe and North America explains why these practices have been central to the exercise and contestation of power across North America and Europe Caresharing Marty Richards, MSW, LCSW,2011-04-01 Rebalancing the Roles in Caregiving So All Involved Are Supported When you care for someone who is dealing with the complexities of aging illness or disability you share intense emotions and form deep bonds You each have the opportunity to recognize what is most deeply human and most deeply Divine in the other This sense of reciprocal sharing between the caregiver care receiver and with others around you is the essence of the dance in caresharing from the Prelude The word caregiver typically suggests someone doing all the giving for a frail physically or mentally challenged or aging person who is doing all the receiving Marty Richards proposes a rebalanced approach of caresharing From this perspective the cared for and the carer share a deep sense of connection Each has strengths and resources Each can teach the other Each can share in grief hope love and wisdom Richards shows you how to move from independent caregiving to interdependent caregiving by engaging the spiritual and emotional aspects of caring for a loved one Whether you are a daughter or son a husband or wife a sibling long term partner or good friend Caresharing offers a multilayered reciprocal process that will help you keep your spirit and your loved one s spirit alive in challenging times Sharing Wisdom What the Frail Teach the Well Sharing Roles Reinventing Family Roles in Sharing Care Sharing Soul to Soul A Special Relationship with People with Dementia Sharing Grief Dealing with the Little Losses and the Big Ones Sharing Forgiveness A Key Spiritual Journey Sharing Hope and Heart An Active Process One Step at a Time Petitioning and Power Relations in Pre-Modern Eurasia David Zaret,2025-08-05 Petitioning was the main route by which the agency of subjects engaged the authority of rulers Most studies explore it as a practice for sending requests to central and local representatives of state power in empires kingdoms and city states Yet the practice occurs in other fields of power for example in medieval papal governance seigneurial regimes and other types of lordship e g queenship Petition and response was the inverse twin to command and obey and just as inherent and indispensable for managing pre modern power relations Requests by petitioners were endlessly diverse Petitions were the universal request form for subjects who sought assistance with every conceivable problem or opportunity In addition to resolving conflicts with other subjects or officials there were requests for appointments promotions to higher positions or social ranks exemptions pardons privileges pensions salary increases charitable relief and more Some petitioners were docile and ingenuous others were ingenious even predatory petitioners whose initiatives reveal high levels of agency This is the first truly comparative analysis of pre modern petitioning across Eurasia Across a wide range of historical case studies and cutting against the grain of the dominant one dimensional social science perspective on pre modern power relations David Zaret shows petitioning in pre modern Eurasia to have been a dynamic tool of state and not as is often assumed merely an instrument of protest or imitation of religious prayer Comparative study shows the practice to have been remarkably uniform and one whose ubiquity and prominence are astounding for its diverse socio cultural contexts there are Sumerian Akkadian and Aramaic petitions in ancient Mesopotamia demotic petitions in Egypt when Pharaohs ruled then Greek ones after imposition of Ptolemaic rule Other contexts for the practice include Zoroastrian Persia Hellenic and Roman cultures of benefaction Christianity Islam Daoism Confucianism and the syncretic mix of Shinto and Buddhism in Japan In so doing Zaret bridges literatures of two fields and makes important contributions to both historical research on petitioning which is often confined to case studies and theories of power relations arguably the most heavily plowed field in social theory to offer revisionist perspectives on the fluid nature of power and politics in the pre modern world

Peasant Petitions R. Houston, 2014-07-02 This book examines the structures and texture of rural social relationships using one type of document found in abundance over all the four component parts of Britain and Ireland petitions from tenants to their landlords The book offers unexpected angles on many aspects of society and economy on estates in the 17th and 18th centuries
