Children's Liturgy of the Word 2009 - 2010: A Weekly Resource - Celebrating the Lectionary, The Lord's Prayer and the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew's Gospel Charles Nathan Ridlehoover, 2019-12-26 Charles Nathan Ridlehoover examines the Lord's Prayer in Matthew's Gospel, focusing on the prayer's centrality and showing how this centrality affects our reading of the Sermon on the Mount and subsequently the prayer itself. Ridlehoover argues that the Lord's Prayer is structurally, lexically, and thematically central to the Sermon on the Mount and the means through which disciples of Jesus are empowered to live out the kingdom righteousness it defines. In turn, the Sermon on the Mount clarifies what the answer to the petitions of the Lord's Prayer might look like in the life of the disciple of Jesus. Whilst the centrality of the Lord's Prayer has been noted by previous commentators, this centrality and its intended purpose has not hitherto been defined or examined in great depth. Ridlehoover fills this gap with a closely argued and in-depth study ranging from methodology and the structure of the prayer itself to examining the Father's forgiveness and evil petitions and the relevance of word and deed for hearers and doers. Ridlehoover's examination of the relationship between the Sermon and Prayer advances studies in compositional criticism and intratextuality.

Unstoppable Gospel Gregg Matte, 2015-10-27 The path of least resistance is seldom the path of greatest impact This is a truth that the apostles knew intrinsically but from which we the modern church seem to shy away They boldly proclaimed the Gospel in season and out of season We want to avoid risk avoid stepping on toes avoid any bad publicity that might come with going out on a limb But much like the first rockets to leave Earth's atmosphere giant leaps forward in God's kingdom don't come without a big vision and a great big dose of risk In Unstoppable Gospel pastor Gregg Matte calls readers to take up the task of the early church and go change the world He shows how using ordinary everyday people has been God's plan from the beginning and how we all have a part in that plan He shares many practical ways Christians can get involved in their churches and communities to take advantage of the countless opportunities God provides for us to make a lasting kingdom impact in our world
