	Nursing Practice Scenarios
Cultural Safety	You are the charge nurse on the postpartum unit at a regional hospital. Your hospital provides services to the city and surrounding rural geographic area that includes a Cree First Nation community. One day one of the newer nurses on the unit asks you to speak to a new mother from the Cree First Nation. The patient has had numerous visitors, often several at a time, and they have stayed beyond visiting hours. What concepts and theories guide your response to the nurse? What concepts and theories guide your interactions with the new mother?
Short-Staffed	You arrive to work to find that two nurses have called in sick, and there are no replacements available. Your busy 38-bed unit is normally staffed with seven nurses and a five or six to one ratio (patient to nurse). All available nurses will now have to assume one to two additional patients. Knowing that you will be experiencing a busy day, what guiding concepts or theories can help you and the other staff get through the day without lowering standards of care.
MAiD	You work in a rural hospital with 16 acute care beds. You frequently see palliative patients who can no longer manage at home at the end-of-life, and there is no hospice in your community. One of your patients was admitted 2 weeks ago for pain and symptom management. This patient has deteriorated significantly over these 2 weeks and is now bedridden. As you begin your shift and do your initial assessment,
