Prayer Shawl Ministries and Women's Theological Imagination Donna Bowman, 2015-10-30

Based on personal interviews Prayer Shawl Ministries and Women s Theological Imagination uncovers the theological creativity of Christian lay women quietly stitching their own sacred fabric

From the origins of prayer shawl ministry in feminist and ecumenical thought the movement has grown to hundreds of groups composed mostly of women over 60 in denominations across the political and doctrinal spectrum

Through participation in handcrafting ministries participants reflect on themes that sometimes complement and sometimes challenge the public stances of their communities

Women in prayer shawl ministries develop commitments to broad inclusion reject the intrusion of market forces and realize their productive power

Out of their traditional roles as caretakers they craft compassion into a conscious theologically rich practice

Out of their historical subordination they cultivate trust in divine providence and hope for the preservation of their legacy

Listening to their ideas convictions and concerns and connecting them to findings from multiple scholarly fields this book seeks to disclose the convergences and complexity of ordinary women s theological thinking and behavior
