

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL - First Holy Communion Mass

CELEBRANT: With faith, let us now present our petitions to God as we celebrate our First Holy Communion Mass today, for every petition let our response be:

Lord, graciously hear us.

Let us pray for the Holy Church, may it feed us with God's holy word and with the holy bread of the Eucharist, giving us life eternal. Let us pray to the Lord.

Let us pray for our parents and our siblings, our relatives and our friends, our godparents and our grandparents, that they may enjoy the gift of deep faith and peace in their hearts. Let us pray to the Lord.

Let us pray for all the priests, catechists, teachers, and all who helped us in preparation for our First Confession and Holy Communion. May God bless them and bestow upon them the gifts they need for happiness and salvation. Let us pray to the Lord.

Let us pray for all the children who today, for the first time, will receive the Lord Jesus in Holy Communion. May they love Him with all their hearts and forever live faithfully. Let us pray to the Lord.

Let us pray for all of us gathered here. May each of us be grateful for the gift of the Eucharist, and experience with faith and love this encounter with our Lord Jesus in Holy Communion. Let us pray to the Lord.

CELEBRANT: Lord, accept these petitions, that with great faith, hope and love we offer upon your altar as we celebrate First Holy Communion with our children and their families today. We make these prayers in the name of your son, who is our Lord forever and ever. Amen.

Morrill, 2021-09-09 What motivates practice of the liturgy and sacramental rites of the church Does the worship of God begin and end within each ritual enactment or does the truth and value of sacramental celebration reside in the broader context of Christian life in church and society For more than two decades prominent Jesuit sacramental liturgical theologian Bruce Morrill has explored the promise and problems inherent in the Second Vatican Council's call to renew liturgy's basic purpose namely the glorification of God and the sanctification of people Morrill's fundamental argument is that this ancient Christian principle is of a piece that divine glory and human holiness are so to speak two sides of a single coin The value of liturgy and sacraments is depleted if not lost unless they function within a holistic practice of faith that seeks the upbuilding of ethical lives personal and social With numerous real life examples plus references to current sociological studies the chapters address both modern challenges to and biblical and traditional resources for the celebration of sacramental rites today With You Always Thomas H.
