MAKING STRATEGIC PLANS WORK Chiku Malunga,2009-01-01 Making Strategic Plans Work introduces an innovative and creative approach to understanding the theory and practice of strategic planning Based on proverbs and folktales the book provides detailed analyses of the stages of the strategic planning process preparation formulation implementation monitoring and evaluation It also discusses the roles and responsibilities of the key players in the process boards management donors consultants and communities and how to build their capacity for more effectiveness It equally provides at each stage templates for assessing the effectiveness of the strategic planning process as well as the key players The book is unique in that it uses the wisdom contained in African proverbs and folktales to discuss the stages of the strategic planning process and roles and responsibilities of players in the process Being metaphors proverbs and folktales often bring out more lucidly the meanings embodied in the normally arcane language of strategic planning Proverbs and folktales also create strong mental pictures which are often very effective in impressing ideas upon people s minds communicating them at a deeper level and motivating them to action The book is based on research tested use of the proverbs and folktales in strategic planning practice in different contexts in combination with the author's experience as a professional organization development OD consultant. It will be especially useful to students, teachers, executives, board members and all players in international development, community development, organizational development, international businesses and African Studies. Volunteers and expatriates working in Africa and other developing regions will equally find the book useful as it provides insight into the culture and mode of thinking of the people they work with.

Global Fundraising Penelope Cagney, Bernard Ross, 2013-02-25. A practical guide to the challenges and successes of global fundraising written by an international team of highly respected philanthropy professionals and edited by two of the leading nonprofit thinkers. Global Fundraising is the first book to genuinely offer a global overview of philanthropy with an internationalist perspective. As the world becomes more interdependent and economies struggle, global philanthropy continues to increase. More than that, nonprofits are taking up roles that have traditionally been filled by the government, including social welfare, healthcare and human rights. Global Fundraising provides complete coverage of the implications of this growth for nonprofit culture and how it drives changes in fundraising practices. Organized into thematic chapters, a mixture of geographic and topical issues, it places North American philanthropy in a wider context. It features a companion website with a variety of online tools and materials. The book includes contributions by international leading experts: Matt Ide, Mair Bosworth, Usha Menon, Anup Tiwari, Paula Guillet de Monthoux, Angela Cluff, Norma Galafassi, Mike Muchilwa, Tariq Cheema, Lu Bo and Nan Fang, Masataka Uo, Chris Carnie, Sean Triner, Andrea McManus, Marcelo Inniarra, Ashley Baldwin, Rebecca Mauger, Youngwoo Choi, R F Shangraw Jr, Sudeshna Mukherjee and Anca Zaharia. The book skillfully tracks how the world of fundraising is changing rapidly due to a number of factors, including continuing growth of great wealth, nonprofit innovation emerging everywhere, growth of indigenous NGOs, increased professionalism in fundraising and the value and role of new and social technologies. Written by a team of philanthropy leaders, Global Fundraising offers timely coverage of fundraising around the world. A must have for INGO leaders and anyone anywhere interested in the future of philanthropy and effective fundraising practices.

I Hate God, I Love God Theresa L. Smith, 2013-10-30. In the spiritual realm, hate is one of the most powerful forces because it is the opposite of love, the spiritual world's most powerful force. In I Hate God I Love God, author Theresa L. Smith exposes the original hater and his plans to destroy God's people. Using examples from her personal life along with scriptural references, Smith shows Christians how to turn hatred into love, lies into truth, negative into positive and curse into blessing. I Hate God I Love God explores a host of negative emotions and actions such as jealousy, unforgiveness and spiritual bankruptcy and discusses how these can be changed for the better. This guide facilitates soul searching and challenges Christians to think of what and who the real warlocks and witches look like and how they operate. I Hate God I Love God seeks to encourage and inspire those who feel hopeless and helpless to know that God can and will turn it around.

The Psalms: the Prayer Book of Jesus J.W. Gregg Meister, 2019-03-30. When we face trouble, feel joy or just
