

Non-verbal Communication Essay

Not a day goes by that an individual does not interact with another person, either by phone or in person. There will always be some interaction between two or more people. This interaction will bring about many thought process and emotions that will give the receiver a cue to respond with verbal and nonverbal messages.

"Every time one person interacts with another non-verbal communication takes place, it may be intentional or unintentional, but it is part of the rapid stream of communication that passes between two interacting individual" (Gabbott & Hogg, 2001).

The responses will either be acceptable or unacceptable. Outcomes will vary. No one reacts in the same way as another individual. Examples would be a surprise birthday part...show more content... Merriam-Webster defines non-sequiturs as "an inference that does not follow from the basis premises (Non-sequitur, 2011)." The cause and effect of facial expressions are unrelated. Cultures will differ in nonverbal communication and actions but the facial expressions basically the same.

Gestures

Body gestures are physical types of nonverbal communication. Tapping of a pencil on a desk while studying, a wave from someone to gain another's attention, or hand signals such as Sign Language or police directing traffic.

Body Language and Posture How the sender present himself/herself sends nonverbal communication to a receiver. Handshakes, eye contact, facial expressions, and posture send silent messages to the other person. Posture is an indicator of approachability. The distinction in posture is rectangular and triangular. The posture or position of two people will indicate private conversations (rectangle) or an invitation to join in a conversation (triangle) (Bjorseth, 2007).

Proxemics

Space, proxemics, is the distance between two or more people. The distance between individuals at a social gathering will be approximately 18 inches compared speaking to an audience, which is 12 to 15 feet. This is better known as space between individuals.

Eye Gaze

"Looking, staring and blinking can also be important nonverbal behaviors" (Cherry, 2011). When an individual meets another person or sees something the eyes

The Nonverbal Communication of Melinda in Laurie Halse Anderson's "Speak" Anna Dierks, 2017-10-24 Essay from the year 2017 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 13 University of Paderborn Institut für Anglistik und Amerikanistik course Essay Writing language English abstract One cannot not communicate Of course communication does require words that are spoken but there is more to it than that such as intonation the speed of your language breaks laughter sighs your appearance and your body language According to Paul Watzlawick any kind of behavior belongs in the category of communication Since it is not possible to not behave it is also impossible to not communicate even without words Needless to say the spoken word is what most conversations depend on and which represents a major part of communication However language is not innocent and has often been used by many people to manipulate or offend someone else People with a low self esteem often appear quiet and hardly share their actual opinion They fear the negative consequences that could occur after saying something critical Also they neither believe in themselves nor that anyone cares about what they say The issue of a low self perception forms a major idea of Young Adult Fiction which is the genre that particularly addresses the youth as it copes with subject matters adolescents can relate to The author of Speak Laurie Halse Anderson positions the main character Melinda very clearly towards communication in the beginning of the book with the following statement It is easier to not say anything Shut your trap button your lip can it All that crap you hear on TV about communication and expressing feelings is a lie Nobody really wants to hear what you have to say Not speaking even if you were able to means breaking up with the ability of communication and severing all your contacts This is how the character Melinda completely isolates herself from her surroundings when she is not speaking which is a consequence to the trauma she suffers after being raped Anderson makes Melinda avoid most trouble and public embarrassments and puts her into a state of shock Although Melinda's inner voice often appears very sarcastic and humorous she hardly speaks to other people around her Still the reader is a witness to the events in Melinda's everyday high school life and learns a lot about her life only from the images that Anderson is describing in each chapter Through a reference structure the author makes sure that the reader constantly perceives Melinda's wellbeing on different levels when she creates images and atmosphere rather than telling the actual meaning of certain subjects Writing Essays and Reports Stephen McLaren, 2001 This book is your easy guide to preparing essays and reports for high school TAFE university or business setting up a timeline for writing essays and reports research techniques structuring your work clearly and effectively drafting editing and rewriting referencing other material in your work grammar punctuation and language issues
