Nora Webster A Novel:

Nora Webster Colm Toibin, 2015-06-02 Widowed in her forties with four children and not enough money Nora has lost the love of her life Maurice the man who rescued her from the stifling world to which she was born And now she fears she may be drawn back into it Wounded strong willed clinging to secrecy in a tiny community where everyone knows your business Nora is drowning in her own sorrow and blind to the suffering of her young sons who have lost their father Yet she has moments of stunning empathy and kindness and when she begins to sing again after decades she finds solace engagement a haven herself Nora Webster, 2015 Nora Webster Colm Tóibín, 2016 Nora Webster Colm Tóibín, 2015-02-01 It is the late 1960s in Ireland Nora Webster is living in a small town looking after her four children trying to rebuild her life after the death of her husband She is fiercely intelligent at times difficult and impatient at times kind but she is trapped by her circumstances and waiting for any chance which will lift her beyond them Slowly through the gift of music and the power of friendship she finds a glimmer of hope and a way of starting again As the dynamic of the family changes she seems both fiercely self possessed but also a figure of great moral ambiguity making her one of the most memorable heroines in contemporary fiction The portrait that is painted in the years that follow is harrowing piercingly insightful always tender and deeply true Nora Webster is a novel that illuminates our own lives in a way that is rare in literature Its humanity and compassion forge an unforgettable reading experience Trauma and Recovery in the Twenty-First-Century Irish

Novel Kathleen Costello-Sullivan, 2018-05-07 The desire to engage and confront traumatic subjects was a facet of Irish literature for much of the twentieth century Yet just as Irish society has adopted a more direct and open approach to the past so too have Irish authors evolved in their response to and literary uses of trauma In Trauma and Recovery in the Twenty First Century Irish Novel Costello Sullivan considers the ways in which the Irish canon not only represents an ongoing awareness of trauma as a literary and cultural force but also how this representation has shifted since the end of the twentieth and beginning of the twenty first century While earlier trauma narratives center predominantly on the role of silence and the individual and or societal suffering that traumas induce twenty first century Irish narratives increasingly turn from just the recognition of traumatic experiences toward exploring and representing the process of healing and recovery both structurally and narratively Through a series of keenly observed close readings Costello Sullivan explores the work of Colm Tóibín John Banville Anne Enright Emma Donohue Colum McCann and Sebastian Barry In highlighting the power of narrative to amend and address memory and trauma Costello Sullivan argues that these works reflect a movement beyond merely representing trauma toward also representing the possibility of recovery from it Discrepant Solace David James, 2019-05-23

Consolation has always played an uncomfortable part in the literary history of loss But in recent decades its affective meanings and ethical implications have been recast by narratives that appear at first sight to foil solace altogether Illuminating this striking archive Discrepant Solace considers writers who engage with consolation not as an aesthetic salve

but as an enduring problematic one that unravels at the centre of emotionally challenging works of late twentieth and twenty first century fiction and life writing The book understands solace as a generative yet conflicted aspect of style where microelements of diction rhythm and syntax capture consolation s alternating desirability and contestation With a wide angle lens on the contemporary scene David James examines writers who are rarely considered in conversation including Sonali Deraniyagala Colson Whitehead Cormac McCarthy W G Sebald Doris Lessing Joan Didion J M Coetzee Marilynne Robinson Julian Barnes Helen Macdonald Ian McEwan Colm T ib n Kazuo Ishiguro Denise Riley and David Grossman These figures overturn critical suppositions about consolation s kinship with ideological complaisance superficial mitigation or dubious distraction producing unsettling perceptions of solace that shape the formal and political contours of their writing Through intimate readings of novels and memoirs that explore seemingly indescribable experiences of grief trauma remorse and dread James demonstrates how they turn consolation into a condition of expressional possibility without ever promising us relief He also supplies vital traction to current conversations about the stakes of thinking with contemporary writing to scrutinize affirmative structures of feeling revealing unexpected common ground between the operations of literary consolation and the urgencies of cultural critique

Discrepant Solace makes the close reading of emotion crucial to understanding the work literature does in our precarious present
