Ikpo,2015-09-16 The end of the twentieth century which was marked by multiparty democracy in Eastern European entities and Third World countries moved Cte dIvoire to adhere to the new democratization system in 1990 Nine years later the territory registered its first bloodless state coup On September 19 2002 the country was shared into two parts with human losses and damages when President Gbagbo was on official visit to Italy After different attempts in negotiations Linas Marcoussis 2003 Pretoria agreement 2005 and the Political Agreement of Ouagadougou 2007 for some protagonists international organizations and NGOs the perfect conflict resolution was about running elections so that the former peaceful land could regain its image of a prosperous and stable country The elections that were delayed six times came to pass and two presidents came out of the scrutiny Gbagbo was proclaimed victorious by the Ivorian Constitutional Council while Ouattara was acknowledged by the Independent Electoral Commission Once more the country fell into a postelection crisis Meanwhile the African Union the European Union the USA the French Licorne and the United Nations urged President Gbagbo to step down since Ouattara was considered the happy winner of the scrutiny The refusal of Gbagbo cost human losses and led to his arrest on April 11 2011 Nowadays the country is not unified and reconciled but it will have the 2015 elections

Everyone to Skis! William D. Frank, 2013-10-31 Nowhere in the world was the sport of biathlon a combination of cross country skiing and rifle marksmanship taken more seriously than in the Soviet Union and no other nation garnered greater success at international venues From the introduction of modern biathlon in 1958 to the USSR's demise in 1991 athletes representing the Soviet Union won almost half of all possible medals awarded in world championship and Olympic competition Yet more than sheer technical skill created Soviet superiority in biathlon The sport embodied the Soviet Union's culture educational system and historical experience and provided the perfect ideological platform to promote the state's socialist viewpoint and military might imbuing the sport with a Cold War sensibility that transcended the government's primary quest for post war success at the Olympics William D Frank's book is the first comprehensive analysis of how the Soviet government interpreted the sport of skiing as a cultural ideological political and social tool throughout the course of seven decades In the beginning the Soviet Union owned biathlon and so the stories of both the state and the event are inseparable Through the author's unique perspective on biathlon as a former nationally ranked competitor and current professor of Soviet history Everyone to Skis will appeal to students and scholars of Russian and Soviet history as well as to general readers with an interest in skiing and the development of twentieth century sport
