Professional Issues in Child and Youth Care

Practice Kiaras Gharabaghi,2013-09-13 This book provides an overview of the core professional issues in the field of child and youth care practice The author explores themes ranging from relationships and the exploration of Self to career building and field specific approaches to management The book is written from a pragmatic perspective and serves both to advance current thinking in the field about professional issues as well as to provide the student of child and youth care practice and practitioners with practical and accessible approaches to developing a strong and sustainable professional identity All of the themes in this book are explored within a context of ethical decision making and practice approaches informed by a commitment to children s rights and empowerment Throughout the discussions concepts and themes are considered in relation to four specific lenses the power lens the diversity lens the language lens and the transitioning from theory to practice lens These lenses serve to ensure that the reader adopts a critical understanding of the professional issues in the field and is able to develop his or her own professional identity while mitigating the power and identity issues necessarily associated with being a practitioner in a helping profession This book was published as a special issue of Child and Youth Services     Information Technology Governance and Service Management: Frameworks and Adaptations

Cater-Steel, Aileen,2008-08-31 Increasingly information technology governance is being considered an integral part of corporate governance There has been a rapid increase in awareness and adoption of IT governance as well as the desire to conform to national governance requirements to ensure that IT is aligned with the objectives of the organization Information Technology Governance and Service Management Frameworks and Adaptations provides an in depth view into the critical contribution of IT service management to IT governance and the strategic and tactical value provided by effective service management A must have resource for academics students and practitioners in fields affected by IT in organizations this work gathers authoritative perspectives on the state of research on organizational challenges and benefits in current IT governance frameworks adoption and incorporation     Delivering Policy Reform Evert A. Lindquist,Sam Vincent,John

Wanna,2011-04-01 Predictable and unpredictable challenges continually confront the policy settings and policy frameworks of governments They provide a constantly changing dynamic within which policy making operates Governments at all levels are asking their public services to identify innovative and workable reforms to anticipate and address these challenges Public service leaders around the world are struggling not only to better anticipate emerging demands but also to address reform backlogs However time and time again major policy reforms can prove tough to implement especially in turbulent environments and even tougher to anchor over time This leads to considerable uncertainty and inefficiency as governments and policy communities try to keep pace with change Policies that unravel or are dismantled are costly and represent wasted opportunities They lead to cynicism about the effectiveness of governments and public service advice more generally making it more difficult to deal with other emerging challenges This volume of proactive essays on delivering policy reform offers an intriguing blend of strategic policy advice and management insight It brings together a diverse range of highquality contributors from overseas as well as from Australia and New Zealand including national political leaders public service executives heads of independent agencies and leading international scholars

Allyship Actually - Why it's 'We' and not 'Me' David Barrow,Lucy Grimwade,2024-11-19 The Oxford Learner s Dictionary defines allyship as the state of being an ally a person who helps and supports somebody to a particular group of people that you yourself do not belong to in order to help ensure their basic rights and ability to be happy and successful in society This book exposes the problems that arise from a patriarchal or narrow minded work culture It tells the story of professionals in multiple industries where they are confronted by male dominance or discrimination We see how characters become allies for each other to support personal and professional development Allyship Actually follows Lucy a spirited newcomer to the tech industry and David a seasoned professional as their paths and those of other characters cross in unexpected ways against a bustling London backdrop The characters careers develop amid toxic cultures Based on real life events the narrative gives a vivid depiction of Lucy and

David's frustration with outdated work cultures and their efforts to support colleagues suffering inequity or harassment

Delivering an Elusive Dream of Democracy Joleen Steyn Kotze, 2018-09-10 This book analyses the decline of the ANC in Nelson Mandela Bay the economic hub of the Eastern Cape also known as the party's heartland Over the course of last twenty four years party dominant dilemmas have plagued the ANC in the Nelson Mandela Bay This includes corruption political factionalism blurring the line between party and state as well as engaging in spoils politics While this metro had encapsulated the Dream of 94 since the inception of democracy in South Africa weak quality of governance lack of political efficacy and mediocre if not anorexic service delivery effectively led to the ANC losing this symbolically important metropolitan municipality With the loss of Nelson Mandela Bay voters effectively demonstrated that they are no longer willing to accept the liberation narrative and elusive promise of a better tomorrow The ANC can no longer rely on the political capital of the liberation struggle in securing and maintaining its electorally dominant position The loss of Nelson Mandela Bay coupled with Johannesburg and Tshwane could potentially signal the end of ANC electoral dominance The author tracks the electoral decline of the ANC and analyses the dynamics that impact on its ability to potentially sustain its political and electoral dominant position in future elections Alternative Service Delivery: Readiness Check Gerald T.

Gabris, Heidi O. Koenig, Kurt Thurmaier, Craig S. Maher, Kimberly L. Nelson, Katherine A. Piker, Alicia Schatteman, Dawn S. Peters, Craig Rapp, 2014-04-15 Alternative Service Delivery Readiness Check synthesizes academic and practitioner knowledge about alternative service delivery ASD systems This handbook offers information and insights that local governments can use to provide public services more effectively and efficiently It serves as a primer about alternative service delivery intended to guide investigation of new approaches to service delivery It derives from multiple conversations with local government practitioners in Illinois who were frustrated by a lack of guidance on how to think about alternative service delivery methods for public services and in what circumstances different alternatives were more or less successful This handbook is written for both appointed managers and elected officials who are looking for innovative ways to consider service delivery and want to answer the basic question Can we be doing this better Why does your local government want to consider providing public services in new alternative ways As the cases in this handbook demonstrate jurisdictions that successfully develop and implement an alternative service delivery method are driven by a desire to improve service effectiveness Local governments that move from tactical to strategic thinking about service delivery are the ones more likely to improve services using different forms of alternative service delivery The kinds of issues and types of questions examined in this handbook range from how to best handle such demand driven services as allocation of police and fire resources to how to share expensive equipment that your jurisdiction needs only some of the time The stories solutions and evidence are intended to help local government officials understand the differences between delivery alternatives and the prerequisites for developing and implementing each option The McDonaldization of Social Work Dr Donna Dustin, 2012-12-28 Based upon

George Ritzer's McDonaldization of Society thesis and incorporating aspects of social theory this book examines the introduction of care management to social work practice Donna Dustin analyzes care management as an example of the managerial application of efficiency calculability predictability and control to social work practice These principles put to good use in organizations that produce tangible outputs at a profit are being increasingly applied in non profit public sector organizations where the outcomes require intangibles such as professional relationships The author examines whether the McDonaldization process heightens dilemmas such as cost versus rights for professionals working in the social services Using social theory to frame her research with care managers and their managers in the UK the author examines the day to day implications of care management for social work practice and questions whether the construction of service users as customers contributes to empowering practice The book's in depth analysis of the policy background implementation and practice of care management will resonate with social workers in other national contexts such as the US where the care management model has been introduced
