Nonfiction And Fiction For First Grade:

Teaching Literacy in First Grade Diane Lapp, 2005-05-05 First grade is a year of important new experiences for students and teachers alike Some students will arrive knowing how to read others will know a few letters of the alphabet and most will be somewhere in between Including dozens of reproducibles this book guides first grade teachers in the many decisions they face about how to orchestrate effective appropriate and engaging instruction A special strength of the book is the authors deep understanding of the oral language base of literacy learning both reading and writing and their expertise in differentiating instruction for English language learners Nonfiction Mentor Texts Lynne R. Dorfman, Rose Cappelli, 2009 Guides teachers through a variety of projects samples and classroom anecdotes that demonstrate how teachers can help students become more effective writers of good nonfiction Nonfiction Craft Lessons JoAnn Portalupi, Ralph J. Fletcher, 2001 Writing nonfiction represents a big step for most students Most young writers are not intimidated by personal narrative fiction or even poetry but when they try to put together a teaching book report or persuasive essay they often feel anxious and frustrated JoAnn Portalupi and Ralph Fletcher believe that young nonfiction writers supply plenty of passion keen interest and wonder Teachers can provide concrete strategies to help students scaffold their ideas as they write in this challenging genre Like the authors best selling Craft Lessons Teaching Writing K 8 this book is divided into sections for K 2 3 4 and middle school grades 5 8 students These divisions reflect various differences between emerging competent and fluent writers In each section you will find a generous collection of craft lessons directed at the genre that is most appropriate for that particular age In the K 2 section for example a number of craft lessons focus on the all about or concept book In the 3 4 section there are several lessons on biography In the 5 8 section a series of lessons addresses expository writing Throughout the book each of the 80 lessons is presented on a single page in an easy to read format Every lesson features three teaching guidelines Discussion A brief look at the reasons for teaching the particular element of craft specifically in a nonfiction context How to Teach It Concrete language showing exactly how a teacher might bring this craft element to students in writing conferences or a small group setting Resource Material Specific book or text referred to in the craft lesson including trade books or a piece of student writing in the Appendixes This book will help students breathe voice into lifeless dump truck writing and improve their nonfiction writing by making it clearer more authoritative and more organized Nonfiction Craft Lessons gives teachers a wealth of practical strategies to help students grow into strong writers as they explore and explain the world around them Be sure to look at the When Students Write videotapes too 1st Grade Comprehensive Literacy Colleen Adams, 2003-12-15 Comprehensive Literacy offers a range of curriculum correlated activities to help learners master a wide range of reading and writing skills from phonemic awareness to grammar Valuable pre and post assessments aid teachers in individualizing instruction diagnosing the areas where students are struggling and measuring achievement and support standards Using Picture Books for Standards-Based Instruction, Grades K-2 Patricia A.
