- Show the example with your child (be just as the car is to go to the park as a family. After that we got in the car to go to the park and play. They closed the door when we wanted to go somewhere to go out when we're outside then when they close the window open we get back in the car when it was time to go we got back in the car and drove home)
- Ask your child if they can think of their own summer stories that have lots of details. Just like the example, then ask your child what they know about the format of comics (such as in comic books or secondary words, conversations text, etc.)
- Tell the your child that they will be writing about their own summer stories... comic book style. They will need to draw, or sketch, and have several things that happened during their story come out.
- Tell the children their first story. They need to come up with their summer story comic. Have your child fill out the summer storytelling graphic organizer (2-3 ideas for their summer story comic). Focus on:
