Native Nations Desserts Cookbook Stanley Groves, 2013-01-25 The American Indian independently invented farming and their women were the first farmers in this country May your moccasins make happy tracks in many snows And the Rainbow always touches your shoulder Lo the poor Indian Whose untutored mind sees God in the clouds or hears him in the wind Like the moon from day to day let my sorrows wear away The Moon her face it red be of water speaks she Here needy he stands and I am he At the first sound of the whippoorwill in the spring the Indian knew it was time for planting

Georgia's Historical Recipes Valerie J. Frey, 2025-05 Georgia's Historical Recipes is an exploration of our state's oldest recipes from the antebellum period through World War II as painstakingly researched by Georgia archivist Valerie J Frey This volume begins with a discussion of old recipes as primary sources and what they can tell us about the history and culture of their era and how to bring them to life in modern kitchens Frey then moves into fifty sections that can be read alone yet allow readers to build an understanding of how foodways evolved over time Some sections highlight a single recipe illustrating how changes in technology agriculture transportation communication and social patterns led to changes in Georgia kitchens Most of the recipes are previously unpublished waiting in archives to be rediscovered Other sections explore our oldest cookbooks offering biographical and cultural background information that makes them more meaningful For the first time Georgians have a list of the state s early cookbooks and its cooking experts Readers will learn where to find Georgia s oldest recipes and discover many examples to whet their appetites literally and figuratively for a taste of Georgia s past
