Hoenes del Pinal, Marc Roscoe Loustau, Kristin Norget, 2022-03-10 This book focuses on the ethnographic study of Catholicism and media. Chapters demonstrate how people engage with the Catholic media scape and analyse the social cultural and political processes that underlie Catholic media and mediatization. Case studies examine Catholic practices in North America, Western and Eastern Europe, Latin America, South East Asia and Africa, providing a truly comparative de-centred representation of global Catholicism. Illustrating the vibrancy and heterogeneity of Catholicism world wide, the book also examines how media work to sustain larger global Catholic imaginaries. The English Catalogue of Books Sampson Low, 1911. Volumes for 1898-1968 include a directory of publishers. Bonds of Wool Steven A. Schoenig, 2016-10-07 The pallium was effective because it was a gift with strings attached. This band of white wool encircling the shoulders had been a papal insigne and liturgical vestment since late antiquity. It grew in prominence when the popes began to bestow it regularly on other bishops as a mark of distinction and a sign of their bond to the Roman church. Bonds of Wool analyzes how through adroit manipulation this gift came to function as an instrument of papal influence. It explores an abundant array of evidence from diverse genres including chronicles and letters, saints' lives and canonical collections, polemical treatises and liturgical commentaries and hundreds of papal privileges stretching from the eighth century to the thirteenth and representing nearly every region of Western Europe. These sources reveal that the papal conferral of the pallium was an occasion for intervening in local churches throughout the West and a means of examining, approving and even disciplining key bishops who were eventually required to request the pallium from Rome. Biblical Theology C. Clifton Black, 2024-11-19 An essential collection of C. Clifton Black's best essays on the theology of the New Testament. Clift Black is well known and widely loved for his exegetical acuity, his theological seriousness, his pastoral kindness and the most delightful sense of humor in the biblical studies guild. All these qualities are amply displayed in these thirty essays written across four decades of his career, including four essays that are published here for the first time. Biblical Theology: Essays Exegetical, Cultural and Homiletical represents the fruit of a lifetime of studying, preaching, praying, training pastors, walking in the light and laughing in the valley of the shadow of death. Black's keen mind and pastoral heart make this volume a rich contribution to the field of biblical theology. The American Catalogue ... July 1, 1876-Dec. 31, 1910, 1880. Hoping to avoid the worry of caring for a valuable object, Miss Teaberry gives away the locket her cat finds in the garden, only to find herself enmeshed in a situation of escalating chaos. A Sense of the Sacred James Monti, 2013-02-12 This incomparable volume presents a comprehensive exploration and explanation of medieval liturgical celebrations. The reverent prayers, hymns and rubrics used in the Middle Ages are described in detail and interpreted through the commentary of scholars from the same time period, the era which is also known as the Age of Faith. Collected here is a wide range of ceremonies encompassing the seven sacraments, the major feasts of the liturgical year such as Christmas, Easter and Corpus Christi, and special liturgical rites from the coronation of the pope to the blessing of expectant mothers. The sacred celebrations have been drawn from countries across western and central Europe from Portugal to Poland but particular attention has been given to liturgical texts of medieval Spain which until now have received relatively little attention from scholars Historian James Monti has done exhaustive research on medieval liturgical manuscripts early printed missals and the writings of medieval liturgists and theologians so that the treasures they contain can inspire a sense of the sacred in future generations of Catholics

Hymn Introits for the Liturgical Year Christoph Tietze, 2005 The introit is the entrance song to the eucharistic celebration of the Catholic Church sung to a prescribed text that is thematically linked to the season or the particular celebration and belongs to the category of antiphonal Mass chants The introit chant is the last of the Mass propers to be researched in detail In this groundbreaking study Christoph Tietze presents the history and development of the introit through the ages He has also composed congregational settings of the proper parts of the Mass for the liturgical year This book shows how to make these texts practical for parish use It will help pastors music directors and seminarians better understand the texts for use in today's liturgies Book jacket The English Catalogue of Books, 1906
