

Newton's 1st Law - the law of inertia

An object with no net force acting on it remains at rest or in uniform.

- Objects at rest tend to stay at rest.
- Objects in motion tend to move in a straight line at constant speed.

Inertia - A property of matter which resists changes in motion.

The best measure of an object's inertia is its mass.

Force - A push or pull.

Net forces cause the motion of an object to change.

Examples of Newton's 1st Law in Action:

When you're in a car brake
when you're turning in a car.

In the egg demonstration:

Why does the tray fly across the table? Force was applied toward the tray

Why do the cardboard cylinders go with it? The friction force

Why do the eggs drop straight down into the water? is acting like a glue.
The eggs drop straight down because of gravity.

Physics Challenge: Why doesn't a car in motion on a flat road stay in motion?

Friction forces, and air resistance.

Examples of Accelerated Motion:

speeding up : slowing down : starting :
changing direction : stopping : moving in a circle

Inertia resists acceleration.

A net force causes acceleration.

Newton's 2nd Law - the law of acceleration

When a net force is applied to an object the object will accelerate in the direction of that force.

The Complete Plays of Jean Racine Jean Racine, 2015-10-13

This is the second volume of a projected translation into English of all twelve of Jean Racine's plays only the third time such a project has been undertaken in the three hundred years since Racine's death For this new translation Geoffrey Alan Argent has taken a fresh approach he has rendered these plays in rhymed heroic couplets While Argent's translation is faithful to Racine's text and tone his overriding intent has been to translate a work of French literature into a work of English literature substituting for Racine's rhymed alexandrines hexameters the English mode of rhymed iambic pentameters a verse form particularly well suited to the highly charged urgency of Racine's drama and the coiled strength of his verse Complementing the translation are the illuminating Discussion intended as much to provoke discussion as to provide it and the extensive Notes and Commentary which clarify obscure references explicate the occasional gnarled conceit and offer their own fresh and thought provoking insights Bajazet Racine's seventh play first given in 1672 is based on events that had taken place in the Sultan's palace in Istanbul a mere thirty years earlier But the twilight twisting passageways of the Seraglio merely serve as a counterpart to the dim and errant moral sense of the play's four protagonists Bajazet the Sultan's brother Atalide Bajazet's secret lover Roxane the Sultanness who is madly in love with Bajazet and dangles over his head the death sentence the Sultan has ordered her to implement in his absence and Akhmet the wily well intentioned Vizier who involves them all in an imbroglio in the Seraglio with disastrous consequences Unique among Racine's plays Bajazet provides no moral framework for either protagonists or audience We watch as these benighted characters cut adrift from any moral moorings with no upright character at hand to serve as an ethical anchor and no religious or societal guidelines to serve as a lifeline flail flounder and finally drag one another down Here Racine has presented us with his four most mercilessly observed most subtly delineated and most ambiguously fascinating characters Indeed Bajazet is certainly Racine's most undeservedly neglected tragedy
